STUDY HALL

An aerial photograph of a school campus. On the left is a large, multi-story building with a prominent tower and arched windows. In front of it is a large, open courtyard with a path and some trees. To the right of the courtyard is a road with a few cars. In the background, there are rows of residential houses. The text is overlaid on a white, rounded rectangular box in the upper middle of the image.

AMID THESE SURROUNDINGS

Amid these surroundings we have worked and we have played, we have learned, we have crammed, we have cheered and we have wept—in short, we have lived. Overbrook has been our home for three impressionable years of our lives. And so, we feel that in our Record Book we should bring to the surface the very core of our school—not to create some glamorous illusion but to picture our everyday associations with O.H.S. Thus, we shall endeavor to depict on the following pages the true, the living Overbrook. . .

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

He who does not win new friends each succeeding year and continue to cherish old friendships, has not learned the art of living.

—Confucius

I wish for each of you an interesting and happy life.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM M. CLIME

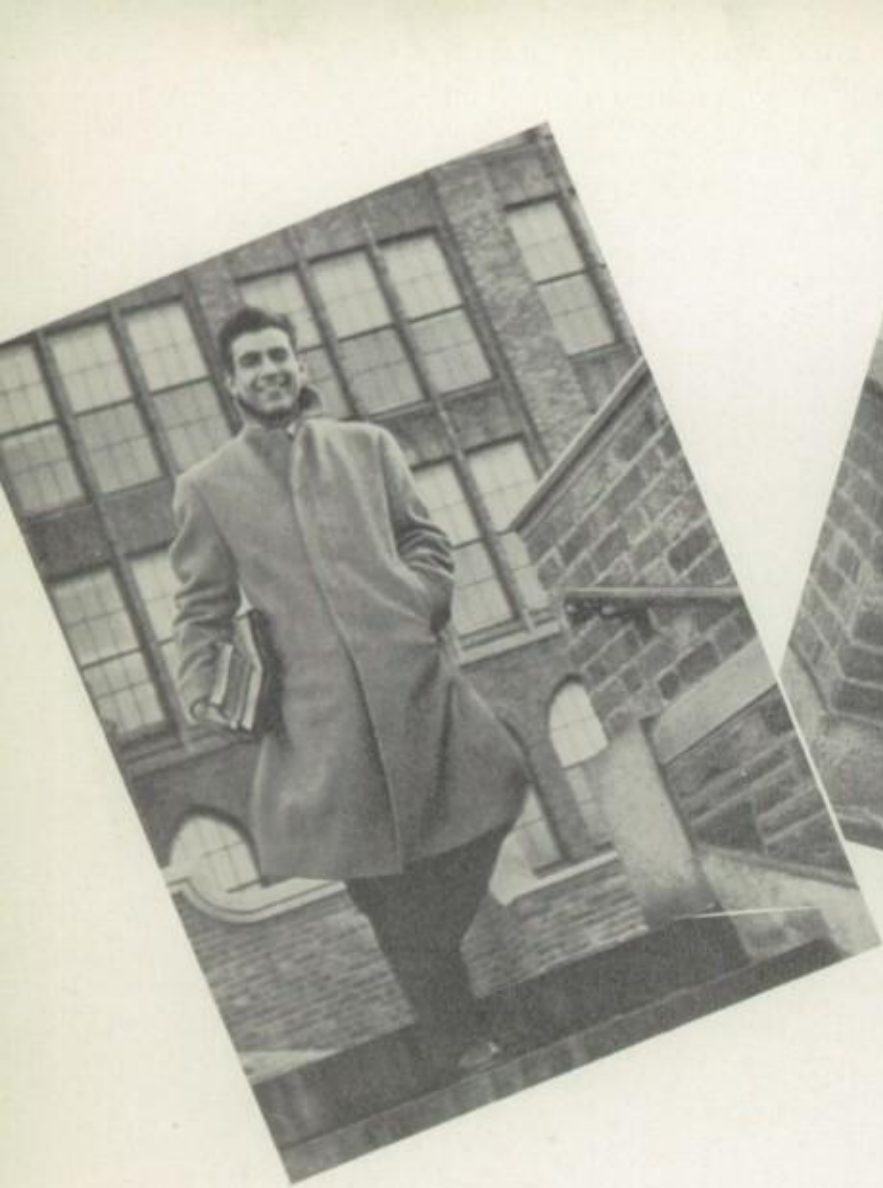

O U R S P O N S O R

We are living in a scientific world, and it is appropriate that your teachers at Overbrook should have aimed at instilling in you the spirit of the experimenter. You have been urged to approach your problems with an open mind, and trained to arrive at conclusions based on results, even if these run counter to your expectations. We hope that you have learned your lesson well. We hope so, because, if you have, then you will listen to all sides without preliminary bias. You will evaluate things on the basis of true worth and not appearance. You will search beneath the surface! And, if you do, you will be a tolerant man or woman. You will prove our contention that men and women of different race, color, and creed can live together in harmony. You will be living refutations to the nonsense emanating from totalitarian countries about decadent democracies.

Democracies are just getting their "second wind," and with people like you to help they will combat and survive all forms of tyranny forever.

WE, THE CLASS OF JANUARY 1942

For wise and sympathetic leadership . . .
For unflagging interest in your task . . .
and untiring energy in executing it . . .
For tolerance and humor and inspiration . . .
For being a sport and downright reg'lar fella . . .
To you, Mr. Boris,
The class of February, 1942 dedicate this classic—
In gratitude, in appreciation, and in admiration.

ELAINE ABRAMS

5606 Wyndale Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Locker Aide,
Music Festival

Pretty "Layne" devotes most of her time to music. She becomes deeply engrossed whenever it is being played or when it is the topic of conversation. Perhaps she'll soon be singing over the radio.

ELIZABETH ADAMI

4948 Reno St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

Betty is a gay and talkative member of the class. She is fond of bookkeeping, but is not headed for a business career. It appears that she is aiming directly at marriage.

BEATRICE ADAMS

6147 Columbia Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Color Guard in Band, Class Cabinet

When the band marches, Bea can be found in step with the Color Guard. She intends to study nursing at college in Michigan, her old home state. We can always identify her by her charming accent.

BERNICE ADAMS

5613 Pearl St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

Shorty is an extremely quiet girl. We often wonder what she is thinking of. She is looking forward to graduation and to a good job as a seamstress. She would like very much to travel throughout the world.

NORMAN T. ALBRIGHT

1342 N. Wanamaker St.
Mech. Arts
11B, 12A, 12B; Record
Book Staff

It's hard to spot "Norm" without either detailed aircraft plans or that pretty girl under his arm. He claims to have an equal interest in both. Well, all work and no play would make "Norm" a dull boy.

ANTHONY ANDREONI, JR.

5031 Girard Ave. Com.
S.A., A.A.

Andy, in spite of his excellent gym work, is looking forward to the end of his school days. Perhaps one of the reasons is history; but then it might be his great wish to secure a job which promises advancement.

HARRY G. ANGELOS

5823 Sansom St. E.B.S.
S.A., A.A., Stage Crew

"Has" is set on leading his own band. He frequently visits the Earle Theatre to get ideas from the various leaders. This is his main interest, although the building trades attract him.

HAROLD ARON

1815 No. 54th St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., S.A. Aide,
Clio Club, Tribunal Member

"Speed" hopes for an officer's uniform in the future, but now his interest is in model railroading. H. A. loves his sleep, sometimes carrying it into the classroom. Lectures by Mr. Hoagland are strictly O.K. with him.

RITA ANDREASSI

6105 Vine St. Acad.

S.A., A.A., Advisory Council, Secretary of Home Econ. Club, Guidance Aide, Record Book Staff

Our one word description of Rita is "sincere." In a few years Rita will officially don white cap and dress and assume the duties of a full fledged nurse.

REBECCA ANTONOFF

1730 N. Peach St. Com.

Beacon Staff, S.A., A.A., A.A. Aide, Banking Aide

"Gee winikers." Some boss will be lucky when he gets "Becky" as his private secretary. "Becky" has but one regret. "Sorry my high school days are over."

TILLIE APPEL

4166 Poplar St. Com.

S.A., A.A.

"Toby" has definite ideas about her future. She intends to succeed in the business world. Whenever she isn't knitting, "Toby" can be found in a quiet corner reading some popular novel.

ISABELLE BALAT

5641 Berks St. Com.

S.A., A.A., Lunchroom Supervisor, Record Book Collector, Commercial Club

"Izzy" is one of the more versatile members of the class. Because she enjoys her commercial subjects, we are sure she will achieve her ambition to get a good position as a secretary.

WILLIAM ARONOW

35 S. 59th St. Ac.

S.A., A.A., Beacon Staff, Record Book Staff, Forum Club

We'll forever remember "Ep" for his intelligent, if slightly belligerent, discussions of literature in the English class. "Bill" usually thinks things through before making up his mind and venturing an opinion.

WILLIAM AUGSBERGER

1467 N. 59th St.
E.M.S.-Machinist
S.A., A.A.

"Augie" is one of O. H. S.'s outstanding gymnasts. You can usually find him working in the gym at any time after school. "Augie" is also interested in mechanical work and hopes to use his Overbrook training to become a tool maker.

MAX BECKER

1731 Aberdeen St. Com.
A.A., S.A., Basketball Team, Baseball Team

Although Max is a basketball player at heart, his intentions are to become a successful business man. He admits that the easiest way to accomplish anything is to marry a rich girl.

MANUEL BENJAMIN

5930 Irving St.
Mech. Arts
S.A., A.A.

Manny wants to become an electrical engineer. His main reason for choosing this field is his great interest in mechanical drawing. He enjoys making models of airplanes and boats. He also occupies himself with admiring all the beautiful girls.

ROSE BARBASH

4174 Leidy Ave. B.
Library Aide, S.A., A.A.,
Social Service Club

"Rosie's" presence in school Monday mornings represents a long struggle with sleep. The little girl with the auburn curls hopes to be "somebody's stenog." Rose is constantly looking for new hair-do's to occupy those hours after 2:15.

MICHELENA BARONE

1448 N. 56th St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Library Aide,
Music Events

Micky is a famous class cut-up who aspires to travel out West in the dear ol' U.S.A. To Mickey we must take our hats off because she is one who always sees the brighter side of life.

SHIRLEY BARSH

52nd & Montgomery Av. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

Shirl is most frequently seen with a group of girls gathered about her while she tells one of her "tall stories." Although she has not definitely decided upon her future career, she intends to enter college.

ELEANOR BATTAFARANO

5556 Lansdowne Ave. Ac.
Delegate every term, S.A.,
A.A., Music Events, Record Book Staff

Eleanor doesn't like to take credit for her achievements. What with being an A-1 dietician, and enjoying the fine art of music we predict a varied, interesting life.

ALBERT M. BERNSTEIN

5638 Wyndale Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Music Festival

Bashful "Sonny," our versatile he-man, is quite a swing enthusiast. Our future manufacturer intends getting his preliminary training at the Philadelphia School of Textiles. "Sonny" can usually be found participating in a good game of basketball.

EDWARD BERSHAD

5459 Euclid Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., A.A. Representative, Cheerleader

"Ed's" fondness for football has been characterized by his efforts of cheerleading although he claims it's his fondness for the other cheerleaders (all feminine and rather pretty). It's difficult to blame you, Ed. "Bradshaw" is at present looking forward to a higher education.

ALVIS WILLIE BIVINS

45 N. 59th St. E. A.
S.A., A.A., Locker Aide

"Big Boy" spends his spare time swimming and ice skating. His ambition is to become a professional basketball player; but on the side "Willie" will continue to play the part of a gallant ladies' man.

ALBERT BOWMAN

141 N. 54th St. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

Al is quite a conservative gent. Sports-minded, he was a member of two of O.H.S.'s great basketball teams. When he is not practicing, you'll find him in the library reading. His ambition is just success, nothing else.

HELEN BELINSKY

1738 N. Lindenwood St. Ac.

S.A., A.A., Library Aide, Social Service Club, Gym Aide

Helen is one of those people whose spirits can't be dampened. Her sense of humor has won her many friends. She hopes to design gowns for Hollywood's glamo-ourest females.

NAOMI BELL

6030 Thompson St. Vocational Art

Leaders, Manager, Basketball, Tennis, S.A., A.A.

Nome intends to study art for her career as a commercial artist. In case she doesn't secure such a position, she can always apply for one in the line of acrobatics. Her acrobatic dances are superb!

SHIRLEY BERGER

5452 Euclid Ave. Ac.

S.A., A.A., French, Tennis, Bowling Clubs

Whenever you see Shoshe she is either singing or formulating a new reducing diet. She has no violent desire to be any one thing in particular, but she does want success in whatever she undertakes.

DORIS BERKOWITZ

5612 Woodbine Ave. Ac.

S.A., A.A., Gym Aide, Social Service

"Deke" is always teaching algebra to someone who just doesn't understand. Her ability to make new friends must be due to the fact that she has so many interests and hobbies.

THOMAS E. BRESSI

808 Kenmore Rd. Ac.

S.A., A.A., Vice-President of the 12B Class

"Breezy," our famous little Vice President, is a great lover of the girls and athletics. He is going to attend an out-of-town college and hopes to play professional football or basketball in the future.

EMANUEL BRODSKY

2218 N. Melvin St. Ac.

S.A., A.A., A.A. Representative, German Club

Due to his great interest in physics and chemistry, Manny hopes to become a medical doctor. In his chosen field, he hopes to do something for the benefit of humanity.

ROLAND BROWN

5554 Lansdowne Ave. Ac.

Football, Basketball, A.A., S.A.

"Bud" is an outstanding member of our football team. After playing a vigorous game of football, he finds much relaxation in reading. He feels that a job which enables one to retire on a pension is ideal.

CURTIS BRUCE

6323 Race St. Mech. Arts

S.A., A.A., Spanish Club

Likable "Curt," without a doubt, is the quietest member of our class. His ambition is to work for the Bell Telephone Company. Our "ten-gallon" hats are off to our future Westerner, Curt.

ELEANOR BLOOM

5445 Wyndale Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

"Buck" is noted for her ice-skating. It is marvelous how she twirls about on those silver blades. She would like very much to become a professional ice skater, and we're sure she'll attain her ambition.

DEBORAH BOGIN

2117 N. 59th St. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

From all appearances Debbie is headed directly for a Justice of Peace and marriage. If in a few years you should see a brunette with a big blond Adonis by her side, in the vicinity of Overbrook, look twice! It might be Debbie.

BERNICE BROWN

152 N. Wanamaker St. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

"Brownie" is always to be found with a smile brightening her face. Aside from her fondness for singing and dancing, Bernice exhibits commendable physical prowess on the ropes and rings in the gym.

ELVA BUDIN

5179 Heston St. Com.
S.A., A.A., Bank Aide, Locker Aide, Library Aide,
Social Service Club

A skilled and accurate typist is Buzzle. After graduation, she hopes to become a capable and efficient secretary. She has already proved her efficiency in various useful capacities at school.

STANLEY CHANNICK

5705 Malvern Ave. Ac.
Pres. Boys' A.A., 2nd team basketball, A.A. Representative, inter-book basketball champs

There was nothing easier in life for "Chuck" than to become a millionaire. Through his popularity and congenial character, he has won for himself a "million friends." If you're ever in trouble just look up Stan; he'll help you out.

GEORGE CLEMENTS

6209 Lansdowne Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

George is one of those many fellows who have left school to do their part in defense. While in Overbrook, he spent a great part of his time participating in athletic events.

MAX COHEN

1004 N. 40th St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Junior Orchestra

You should see the way he struts around after those girls! And you should see him in sociology class. Max, with his great interest in economics and current events, should reach the top in his chosen field—radio commentating.

MORTON COMROE

5432 Morse St. Com.
S.A., A.A., A.A. Representative, Alternate

"Mort" spends his time in O.H.S. looking for pretty girls. English ranks first among his pet subjects. "Mort's" hobby is window dressing. He has hopes of making a million as a successful window dresser.

CELIA BUDMAN

5227 Girard Ave. Com.
A.A., S.A., Banker, Locker Aide, Social Service, Alternate

Right now, Cel is aiming for one hundred words per minute on the typewriter, and a two hundred in bowling. We know that she will succeed in all her future plans for happiness.

DEBORAH BURSTEIN

5410 Euclid Ave. Ac.
sentative

Take some "it," add beautiful blonde hair, big blue eyes, a peaches - and - cream complexion, and you have "Debbie." "Debbie" is going to enter the business world, but that flaxen hair makes us think she won't be there long.

RITA CARUSO

6401 Race St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

"Re" is the all-around girl. Her interests range from sports to solving problems, and to stenog-raphy. Nothing disappoints Rita more than having another person solve a problem which she is unable to do.

DOROTHY CHAFKIN

5457 Morse St. A.
S.A., A.A., Sec't. of Home
Econ Club, Capt. of Lost and Found, Locker Captain

Dancing and playing the piano are Dot's favorites. Dot is a conscientious worker who devotes her talents to guidance work.

SANFORD CREWS

5819 Lansdowne Ave.
E.M.S.
S.A., A.A., Nature Club "Sailor" claims that there's nothing in school that gives him more pleasure than gym work.

His other hobbies are swimming and chess. If "Sailor" has anything to say about it, he'll retire at forty and see the world.

FERDINAND D'AMICO

4144 Poplar St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

"Flash," the ace drummer boy of Overbrook High School, plays with the finesse of an accomplished artist. "Flash" probably gets the energy required for his strenuous occupation from the huge lunches, for which he is so famous.

JOHN DEL SORDO

232 Simpson St. Ac.
sentative

Although he had a great dislike for wearing ties for Miss Barten, John usually complied with the rules. His happy-go-lucky character won him many friends in school, whom he will keep for the rest of his life.

ERNEST DORMAN, JR.

257 N. Hobart St. Music
S.A., A.A., Sr. Orchestra, Band, Track Team, Cross-Country Team, Gymnastic Team

That big school-bag
"Superman" totes around every day shows that practice makes perfect—he plans to be national weight-lifting champion some day.

SHIRLEY IRENE CHAREN

5350 Morse St. Ac.
Guidance Aide, Social Service, Locker Aide

To Shirley, making friends was one of the best phases of Overbrook life. That personality smile is the reason! Shirley is active in settlement work now, and looks forward to the time when she will become a social worker.

OLA MAE CLARK

117 N. Yewdell St. B.
S.A., A.A.

"Dimples" will have a busy time writing to all the boys at camp. She claims she has plenty to say in those missives because she's always on the go. Drop us a line, Ola, after graduation from the beauty culture school.

IRENE COHEN

1622 N. 52nd St. Ac.
Features Editor of Beacon, Record Book Staff

Irene, who made a name for herself after coming here from New York, looks forward to graduation with anticipation. She is planning a newspaper career. If her Beacon Articles are an example, she is tops.

LUCILLE COOK

1334 N. Alden St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

If you want to be the most talked about person in class, just do what "Cookie" does. When the class gets boring fall asleep. That's "Cookie's" claim to fame. Lucille's pet subject is one with no work attached.

WALLACE DORNSEIF

6041 Columbia Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., A.A. Representative, Hy Y Club

Athletes and appetites usually go together. Wally, an outstanding football, baseball and basketball player, is notorious for his appetite. After graduation he wants to be a pilot in the army of the good old U. S. A.

RICHARD DUKES

5429 Lebanon Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Camera Club

Do you want to meet a photo-addict? Dave is a mighty good one! For a good shot he'll do almost anything, even going so far as to climb the bleacher wall at Shibe Park or at the Overbrook High School Stadium.

STANLEY EISMAN

5658 Lebanon Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Advisory Council, Class Cabinet, Record Book Staff

Stan, upon entering high school, immediately became a leader among his classmates. After graduation "Whitey" will seek an appointment to the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis. All the luck in the world to you, "Midshipman."

NORMAN EPSTEIN

2224 Wanamaker St. Ac.
Record Book Collector

"Eppie" is the "little man" who's always there." Although he weighs a mere 98 pounds, his big heart is always willing to help a friend in need. After graduation, Norm is going to try to put on about 50 more pounds.

SYLVIA COOPER

5210 Heston St. Com.
S.A., A.A., A.A. Representative

Give "Sivvy" a good book, and some classical music, and there's nothing she'll appreciate more. "Sivvy" claims that office practice and bookkeeping are her pet subjects. Here's hoping that her taste for these bring her success.

FRANCES CORBMAN

212 Edgehill Rd. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Lunch Room Captain, Locker and Library Aide

Fran enjoys reading pupils' faces, and sketching the more interesting ones. Fran finds the thought of leaving O. H. S. distasteful. A hearty laugh is characteristic of Franny, so we're sure that she'll be a jolly laboratory technician.

BEATRICE D'AMICO

1008 N. 66th St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

Everyone knows Bea because she's so quiet. However, when it comes to talking about tennis or movies, you'd be surprised at all Bea knows. Judging from her taste for bookkeeping, we're sure her fate is a commercial one.

LOUISE D'ANJOLELL

145 N. Gross St. Com.
S.A., A.A., Delegate

Were you ever bitten by the love bug? Louise was. After graduation Lou hopes to become the model wife for "the swellest fella in the world." Some good advice to the boys from her is, "Don't act silly." Careful, fellows!

ROBERT ESSEN

829 N. 40th St. Com.
S.A., A.A., Locker Aide, Lunchroom Aide

With his friendly, easy-going manner, with his determination to get ahead, and with his talents in typing, shorthand, and lettering, Bob should be in the top ranks of the business world. But, fellows, take a lesson from Essen—stay away from the girls.

DONALD FINKELSTEIN

5603 Arlington St. Ac.
Parade Nite, Concert Master of Orchestra

"Fink," our noted concert master, divides his time between the school orchestra and the swing band. Fink's pet subject is senior orchestra because it makes him realize he's of value to the school.

ERNEST FRANCIOTTI

5142 Kershaw St. E.B.S.
S.A., A.A.

Ernie would like to be an architect. With his experience he could start designing theaters right now. Acting as usher in the best of them has given him some splendid ideas.

MORTON FRANK

5470 Berks St. Ac.
S.A., A.A. Representative

Mort is a staunch baseball supporter who is eagerly waiting for the day when he can see a World Series in Philadelphia! For his career he has chosen medicine. Mort hopes to find himself prominent in that field soon.

GLORIA D'ANNUNZIO

1300 N. 61st St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Banker, Treasurer of Home Econ.

Gloria looks forward to the day that she will become a registered nurse. During the course of her college work, she hopes to learn to speak French as well as a Frenchman.

LUCY DAWKINS

5713 Harmer St. Com.
S.A.

Lucy, when she isn't chewing gum or looking blue, is looking ahead to that position after graduation. "Peggy" says that she hates to leave Overbrook. She'll always remember her years in school as pleasant ones. Overbrook won't forget her, either.

ANTONETTA DI BENEDETTO

406 N. 65th St. Com.
A.A., S.A., A.A. Representative

Toni is tops when it comes to dancing and skating. She can carve a figure eight on ice, and does everything from waltzes to the conga on the dance floor. Toni's ambition, like that of many others, is to become a housewife.

GERALDINE DINGLE

106 N. Sickel St. Acad.
S.A., A.A.

"Gerry's" ambition is quite simple. She wants only to be happy and to help make others feel the same way. After graduation from college, she hopes to become a social worker.

SIDNEY FREEDMAN

4830 Merion Ave. Com.
Delegate Boys' Locker Aide, Music Festival

"Women, women, and still more women," seems to be Sid's cry. We hear that this gay blade trips the light fantastic quite frequently at his frat's dances. His ambition is to marry a millionaire's daughter.

MORTON FUCHS

2138 N. 58th St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Banker

"Morty" would like to obtain a degree in medicine in a popular college. Such a college will find "Morty" a football enthusiast and supporter. We might say he is a pretty good sport himself.

JOSEPH GALLUP

5359 Montgomery Ave. Ac.
Cabinet, Freshman Counsellor

Joey looks forward to his life as a millionaire playboy. Bright lights and gay nights are his speed. He craves a chauffeured limousine and a mansion with all the trimmings. This would be the life of Riley, or rather Joey.

HAROLD FURMAN

5340 Gainor Rd. Ac.
A.A. Representative, Alternate, A.A., S.A., Prom Committee

"Har" won't tell us in what capacity he hopes to make his "Pot of Gold," but he'll have to be tops in any field to accumulate the sum he wants. Here's hoping his ship comes in.

ELVIRA DITIZIO

440 N. 65th St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

Elvira looks forward to graduation with great anticipation. She hopes to get a job immediately after leaving school. "Al" will welcome the day when her typing will be "tops." "Al's" only prejudice is against "Monday mornings."

ROSE TOBI DORF

5427 Upland Way Ac.
S.A., A.A., Debating Team, Dramatic Club

Rose will always be remembered for her red-headed temper. Her favorite pastime while in school was to help the teacher teach. After graduation "Tobi" will enter medical school, and become an outstanding woman surgeon.

DOROTHY DUDLEY

1618 N. 54th St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., President of Girls' A.A., Cheer Leader

Dorothy hopes, after graduation, to own her own dog kennel. "Dot," known by every one for her participation in girls' sports, claims that she's really one person who is going "to the dogs."

GERTRUDE ENGBLOM

745 N. 41st St. Ac.
A.A. Representative, Basketball, Tennis, S.A., A.A., Delegate, Spanish Club

Gertrude Engblom, Vincent Lopez, and Eddy Duchin are the outstanding pianists of our day. Her planned career is to become an expert blue-print reader after graduating from Bucknell University.

JACK GANSKY

3968 Reno St. Com.
A.A., S.A.

Jack intends to be a bachelor. Though he claims "women is poison," we think the right young lady will come along someday and change Jack's mind.

JOHN GARTLAND

4241 Mantua Ave. Com.
S.A., A.A., Track

The tall "Romeo" of the class is quite popular so far as girls are concerned. He is not only an outstanding track star but also an enthusiastic baseball fan. Success to you, Johnnie, in your future pursuits.

ALBERT GOLDBERG

1909 N. 52nd St. Com.
S.A., A.A., Locker Aide

Boomy is the congenial type of fellow with whom one likes to be. Although seen driving about in a car, he is remembered for his broad, sincere smile, and his favorite expression, "Lo, lover!"

PAUL GOMEN

1406 N. 60th St. E.E.
S.A., A.A.

Paul could tell many a tale of his travels in New Mexico, Texas, and the rest of the Southwest. So if you hear a mellow Southern accent drawling in the vicinity, you'll know that Paul is up again for some Northern air.

FLORA ESPOSITO

5929 Nassau Rd. Com.
S.A. Aide, A.A., Prom Committee

Music sets the keynote in Fuvvy's life. She loves music for it fits all her moods; therefore she plans a musical career. In fact, her auditions with popular bands have greatly encouraged Flora on her road to success.

VARSENIC ESAYIAN

5452 Media St. Voc. Art S.A., A.A., Art Staff, Record Book Staff

"Varsie," because of her outstanding ability in the field of art and designing, can hardly help becoming a most successful designer after graduation. Women's fashions are bound to become saner when Varsie takes over.

MILDRED EXTEIN

6004 Master St. Ac.
Tribunal, Social Service,
A.A., S.A., Locker Aide

"Milly," who would rather write prescriptions than English compositions, hopes to become a doctor's helper—technically, a technician. Millie is a hard worker, and we know she'll succeed in the medical profession.

HELEN FANELLI

6337 Race St. Com.
Leaders Club, A.A., S.A., Member A.A. Representative, Commercial Club

Upon completion of school Helen intends to spend part of her time in an office. The rest she intends to devote to skating and dancing. Her life's ambition is to travel.

PHILIP GRALLNICK

5464 Montgomery Ave.
Ac.
S.A., A.A., Delegate; French Club; Advisory Council; Record Staff

Phil intends to enter the field of veterinary medicine. Besides looking forward to a degree in D.V.M., Phil wishes to continue the political career he started by holding class positions in O.H.S.

ARMAND GREENBERG

2215 N. 59th St. Ac.
sentative

"Arm" wants to be very successful in the business world. While he was here he claimed a love for all subjects in his curriculum. This is a forerunner to his success. So its good luck to him.

WILLIAM B. GREER

1419 N. Alden St. Ac.
S.A., A.A. Representative

Bill is a stamp collector. One can imagine what a time he has with the present crisis of changing possessions, dominions, and provinces. Our suggestion to Bill is that he change his hobby from stamps to maps.

JULES GROSSWALD

1228 N. 53rd St. Ac.
Chief Justice of Tribunal, Guidance Aide

Jules is one of our students whom we stare at in wonder, for he actually enjoys Algebra. His intentions are to go to college, major in English, and then become a radio announcer.

VIVIAN FEHR

6568 Haverford Ave. Com.

S.A., A.A.

"Viv," in her spare time, can be found cantering along the bridge path astride a sturdy stallion. Viv laments the lack of handsome boys. So, boys, if you're good-looking, Vivian is waiting for you down in the corral.

NORMA JOY FEINBERG

5800 Malvern Ave. Ac.

S.A., A.A., Advertising Manager of Record Book, Cheer Leader

"Let's have an O-Yell-Normal" This is our cheer for you, for your fine work in your senior year. With your ability as a manager, we know you'll succeed in the business world.

ELAINE FINKEL

4131 Cambridge St. B.

S.A., A.A., Vice President of S.A., Beacon Business Staff

Elaine's ambition is to be a highly paid executive. Some may be in doubt as to the ability of a female boss. However, we feel Elaine will prove the efficiency of a feminine chief.

KATHERINE FINNERTY

6202 Jefferson St. Ac.

Treasurer of Senior French Club, S.A., A.A., Locker Aide

Katherine, who is quite an outstanding student, is kept busy with her extra-curricular activities. When she is free, she helps Mrs. Butz, her favorite teacher. After she graduates, she hopes to secure a remunerative position.

VAHE HACHIKIAN

1443 N. 55th St. Ac.

S.A., A.A., Stamp Club, Airplane Club, Chess Club

We'll always remember Vahe as the one who played chess lunch-time. Since his ambition is to become a chemical engineer, it is easy to understand why his pet subject is physics.

HERBERT HARRIS

4814 Reno St. Com.

S.A., A.A.

When "Herky" finishes playing football and talking with pretty girls, he intends to become a big business executive and to make a million dollars. Or maybe he'll do both at the same time, because "Herky" has a zest for living.

HARRY H. HAVNOONIAN

47 N. Dearborn St. Ind. EA

S.A., A.A.

Here in our midst is another Henry Ford. Harry is always thinking of the future, and of new mechanical ideas which some day might lead to his being a millionaire. Here's hoping he becomes as successful as his famous predecessor.

CLARENCE HOFFMAN

720 Preston St. EMS

S.A., A.A.

"Dutch" wants to have a wife and — yes — twenty kids. What a man! Though English is thumbs down, "Dutch" likes music, and it's his ambition some day to have an orchestra of his own.

NANCY FIORELLO

1039 Edgemore Rd. Com.
S.A., A.A., Art, Swimming

Nan is unusual in that she has two widely different talents; she is an accomplished designer and would make a competent secretary. She should have no difficulty in becoming successful in either of these two fields.

CHARLOTTE FISCHMAN

6101 Thompson St. Ac.
Pres. of Home Econ., S.A., A.A.

"Chary" claims that Latin is all Greek to her. But if you talk Turkey to her you'll find she is not Scotch with her English. She has proven to be a good student.

SELMA FLEISHER

5219 Wynnefield Ave. Ac.

Horseback riding is one of "Sel's" hobbies. Give her boots and a saddle and away she'll skiddadle. Cutting figure "8's" on the ice is another of her hobbies. With these two sports we wonder how many meals Sel eats standing up.

FAY FORMAN

2009 N. 54th St. Com.
Advisory Council, Class Cabinet, S.A., A.A.

Fay is one of the class's bright lights. Ever since entering Overbrook she has been active in extra curricular activities. We know that she'll achieve the independence she hopes for.

DONALD HUNT

5437 Berks St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Assistant Editor Record Book, Beacon Staff, Honor Roll

During school hours, Don gets much pleasure from helping people with their math. Because of his love for mathematics and science, he is planning to study engineering.

WALTER HYMAN

2129 N. 58th St. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

Walt is at present looking forward to graduation, both from Overbrook and from college. Until that time he'll probably keep up his pastimes of reading, and playing basketball, and keeping tabs on the latest sports.

BERNARD JONES

413 N. 55th St. Elect.
S.A., A.A.

In order that he may do his part for his country, Bernard has left Overbrook for work in one of the large defense industries. Having received his training here, he is well prepared for such work.

SIGMUND KANDELL

5887 Woodcrest Ave. Com.
S.A., A.A. Representative

What with growing a beard, bawling out Sammy K., singing and dancing, "Siggy" leads quite a busy life. Well, "Siggy" here's hoping that in the future we'll see your name on some C. B. S. or N. B. C. network program.

CHARLOTTE FOX

1801 N. 57th St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Honor Roll

Upon graduation Charlotte intends to go in for higher learning and then for marriage. Her favorite pastimes include knitting and talking, both of which she does at the same time, without dropping a stitch.

BEATRICE GAINES

5137 Brown St. Com.
S.A., A.A., Tennis Club, Basketball Club

"Steve" is in training for her role as a successful nurse. She is proficient in almost all sports, especially tennis and basketball. And if you want to include dancing as a sport—well, Bea is just tops.

CLAIRE GARFIELD

1724 N. Creighton St. Com.
S.A., A.A., Sec't. of Beacon, 12B Cabinet, Cheerleader

Claire has been pretty active during her stay here and we hear she is just as active outside. "Red's" ambition is to be satisfied. We sincerely hope she achieves her goal.

HELEN GEBELINE

Monument Rd. E. of Belmont Ave. Com.
S.A., A.A.

Fancy pins are Gabby's hobby and what a collection she has! Birds, scotties, tie pins, etc. Our guess is that Gabby is stuck on this pastime. In not so very many years we hope to find Helen a private secretary.

MORTON KAPLAN

5169 Jefferson St. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

What Mort looks forward to most is "a good solid lead in a good solid play." He has starred in several school productions. Besides dramatics, his ambitions aspire to even greater heights—"to give some future Morton Kaplan the same opportunities that America has offered me."

SOL KASHOFF

5244 Jefferson St. Ac.
Delegate, Alternate, S.A., A.A., Captain Aide, Music and Dramatic Assemblies

Sol's ambition to become a civil engineer began with his liking of mechanics, mathematics, etc. Mathematics makes him think. Photography is his hobby. For pastime?—He lets go musically in the halls.

STANLEY KESSELMAN

2223 North 59th St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

"What Makes Sammy Run?" He says that it's trying to get to class on time. Out of school, Sammy's main interests are tropical fish and model airplanes. He hopes some day to break into the aviation industry.

STANLEY KESSLER

283 S. 63rd St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Alternate, Attorney of Tribunal

Stan hums and whistles Beethoven's Fifth Symphony wherever he goes. To you, who are intending to enter the ministry—"Blessed is he who has found his work; let him ask no other blessedness."

NOLA MABEL GLENN

118 N. Hobart St. Ac.
A.A., S.A.

This modest miss collects the latest recordings. The platters really whirl around Mabel's house. Mabel hopes to be a Registered Nurse and we know she is going to be successful in this pursuit because of her keen interest in social problems.

RITA GOLDBERG

4250 Lancaster Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Swimming Club

If one picks up a newspaper or magazine in the near future and sees glorified illustrations in fashions, he can be sure Rita was the illustrator. The creation of styles is tedious, but not for Rita.

IDA GOLDMAN

3823 Wyalusing Ave. Com.
S.A., A.A.

Ida refuses to let complicated hobbies or thinking interfere with her life of leisure; so she sticks to walking and reading magazines. After graduation, she will go to Bermuda to recuperate and to take life easy.

GLADYS GOLDSTEIN

5702 Oxford St. Com.
S.A., A.A., Treasurer of Midnite Oil, Social Service

"Bunny" pictures herself as a stenographer in a large office. Well, here's hoping this picture materializes. Perhaps it will be a large business firm paying enormous salaries. How's that for a future, Bunny?

BERNARD KIRSHBAUM

2218 N. 58th St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Alternate, President Peace Club, Camera Club, 1st Celloist Senior Orchestra

Favorite Subjects?—Physics, Music, Chemistry. Hobbies?—Latin, Hebrew, 'Cello playing. We're looking forward to great things from you, Bernie, for "Curiosity is one of the permanent and certain characteristics of a vigorous mind."

WILLIAM KLINE

5517 Hunter St. Ind. EE
S.A., A.A., School Baseball Team

Bill's ambition to play professional baseball leads us to believe that he has a lot on the ball. Here's hoping that his life is a grand series of hits, with no fouls, and that he comes home scoring every time!

GEORGE S. KNIERIEMEN

5437 Euclid Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Alternate

George is the ideal Hilltopper; he studies his homework, is on the honor roll, and supports school activities. He likes Spanish best, for he feels that a thorough knowledge of this language will be very useful in future years.

STANLEY KOLTOFF

329 N. 56th St. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

Stan believes that eating is one of the prime instincts of man. Result: find him without food in his mouth and we'll give you a blue ribbon. He would like to become a business sales executive.

FLORENCE GOODMAN

869 N. Farson St. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

"Floss" appears to be a great winter-sport enthusiast. She thrills at speeding down an icy incline at break-neck speed. We suggest that she keep up with her sports and become a queen of the ice.

DIANA GREENBAUM

4249 Mantua Ave. Com.
Beacon, S.A., A.A.

"Di" would like to be an efficient secretary. All through Overbrook her pet subjects have been stenog and typing. Here is suitable proof as to her ability to succeed in her ambitions.

HARRIET GREENBERG

5646 Arlington St. Ac.
Beacon Business Staff,
S.A., A.A.

Harriet is the famous giggler of our corridors. She would like to accomplish everything that she thinks must be done. She has kept this as her standard of achievement right on through her stay here.

HARRIET DORIS GREENSPAN

2405 N. 57th St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Publicity Manager of Beacon, Cheer Leader, Dancing Club

"Har" likes to dance—and then dance again. Let there be music and she'll do the rest. To be a success in any path she chooses is her ambition.

LEONARD KURTZ

31 N. Robinson St. EMS
S.A., A.A., Football Manager

When Overbrook won that last West Philly game, it was Kurtzie who managed the team. He has been manager for three years. In addition to football, he is interested in machine-work and hopes to become a skilled machinist.

ELI LASTICK

5630 Gainor Rd. Com.
S.A., A.A., Locker Aide

Here is an old-fashioned boy who doesn't like the frivolity of modern girls with their short dresses. He looks forward to a parlor, stereoptician, and the presidency of Westinghouse.

MARVIN LAZAROFF

5301 Lebanon Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Alternate, Delegate, A.A. Representative

"Big Laz" likes to play the clown, and is famous for his wisecracks. He looks forward to a career, but doesn't say in what; however, he'll always be in his element if he's just "one of the boys."

JAMES CLEONNON LEE

857 N. 48th St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

"Clint" is a seemingly quiet fellow, but under that serene exterior is a sparkling sense of humor. His smile is always "on hand" to charm some cute girl. Sometime in the future our friend "Clint" will be a successful business man.

DORIS GRENFELL

1423 N. 55th St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

"Dot" is one Hilltopper who doesn't mind the rush and hurry of gym. Dot enjoys an active life of swimming, dancing, and singing. She's going to be a commercial success in the future.

MARGARET GRINNAGE

528 N. 55th St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

Peggy simply loves to make candy. A little sugar, some butter and all those sweetenings and she is right at home. However, Peggy is going to let the confectionery field alone long enough to become a successful typist.

JOAN GUYDON

5139 Parrish St. B.

"Johnnie" really enjoys her commercial subjects of typing and stenography, but as for bookkeeping, she'd rather have that eliminated from her roster. "Johnnie" hopes some day to own her own dress shop and to be the chief designer of the frocks.

ALENE GWIRTZ

5857 Malvern Ave. Ac.
Dancing Club, Art, S.A., A.A.

"Lenie," who enjoys hygiene and sociology because they deal with human beings and life, desires to become a good wife and mother. She keeps herself physically fit by engaging in various sports and feeding a hearty appetite.

DAVID LEHRMAN

2040 N. 57th St. Acad.
S.A., A.A., Music Festival, Band

"Dave" thinks that psychology is wonderful because it helps him to understand "those women." Ah, brother, you've got a lot to learn. At present, "Dave" looks forward to the Wharton School and a business career.

LEONARD LEVIN

5415 Arlington St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Beacon Staff

"Lew" doesn't think he's famous for anything, but how about that persistent habit of knowing the answers? Then there's that hobby of writing, which doesn't have such a bad effect on those English marks. His ambition is to be a lawyer—is it so that he can dig up some forgotten law against too much homework?

JAMES D. LITES

5542 W. Harmer St. M.
S.A., A.A.

Jimmy finds Overbrook an interesting place in which to observe human nature. He is allergic to noisy people and carrying too many books, especially English ones. His first love is music, but that plays second fiddle when he's engrossed in his hobby, airplane construction.

WILLIAM B. LLOYD

5610 Arlington St. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

Eating and arguing aren't supposed to mix, but "Willyum" can't seem to spend a lunch period without delivering one of his inevitable and inimitable sermons. At any other time you'll probably find him thumbing the Latin glossary or pursuing his hobby, astronomy.

ESTELLA HADDON

847 N. 41st St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

To be next to the smallest one in the class deserves some sort of honor, so we honor you, "Shorty." Estelle's favorite diversions are ice skating and reading. To be a first-class, all-around bookkeeper is Estelle's ambition.

BIRDA HALPERN

263 S. Cecil St.
Ac. and Com.
S.A., A.A. Business Manager of Beacon

Why, of late, has the Beacon Office been such an attraction and who has been the Business Manager of the Beacon? The only answer to both questions is the name atop this paragraph.

MARGUERITE HAMMOND

5125 Funston St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

Margie's aim in life is to hold a good position, and from the quality and quantity of her typing, that shouldn't be difficult to achieve. Her favorite pastimes are reading and music; and she likes school—she says so.

FLORENCE W. HARNLY

6042 Walnut St. Com.
S.A., A.A., Secretary of 12B Class, Secretary of Girls' A.A., Leaders Club

"Polly" has her big blue eyes set on a solid career in the business world. In this career, she will be aided by her love of typing and stenography.

JEROME H. LOBIS

5220 Parkside Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

Jerry votes physics his best subject because it explains all those ordinary everyday experiences. But English composition baffles him—he protests that he just can't write 'em. College is his next goal, from where he hopes to embark upon a career as a chemist.

BURTON LOVITZ

1800 N. 52nd St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Alternate

"Burt" is an advocate of mixed lunches, including those he's in the habit of eating between periods. He goes in for athletics, and prophesying, wants to be a foreign correspondent, and thinks he's the best guy he's ever met.

NORMAN MARGOLIS

1727 N. Aberdeen St. Ac.
Tribunal, Vice Pres. S.P. Q.R., S.A., A.A., Clio Club, Guidance Aide

"Gooch's" pet peeve is paying those senior bills. He goes in for sketching and music, and thinks the vocal ensemble is swell because it peps him up. He thinks Overbrook is the school, but still looks forward to college.

JOYCE MARKS

5426 Euclid Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Senior Orchestra, Swing Band, Prom Committee, Parade Night

"Jim" will always be remembered by his fellow classmates for "beating it out" on the clarinet. In addition to his musical talent, he is quite an algebra student.

SYLVIA HARRISON

216 N. 53rd St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Social Service
Club, Basketball

"Syl's" goal in life is to become a language teacher in some college. In order to get a great deal of practice in speaking, Sylvia makes it a point to monopolize the telephone at home.

SHIRLEY HOLLY

5844 Vine St. Ac.
Social Service Club, Locker Aide, S.A., A.A.,
Library Aide

Studious, "Shirl" looks forward to the day when she'll be a social worker. Judging from her activities in the Social Service Club, "Shirl" will be quite efficient.

RUTH B. HUSIK

4280 Parkside Ave.
Ac. and Com.
S.A., A.A., Social Service,
French, Aide

When Ruth graduates, besides becoming a top-flight tennis player, she plans to continue her education from the portals of an out-of-town college. Her only aversion is conceited men.

GLADYS HUSS

5621 Stewart St. Com.
S.A., A.A., Locker Aide,
Social Service Club, Riding Club

"Red" is the strawberry blonde of the class. She is extremely athletic, and goes in for horseback riding and dancing. Her goal in life is to sing with a famous orchestra.

AUGUSTINE MARUCCI

217 N. Gross St. Ind.
S.A., A.A.

The formula for making a favorable impression on "Autt" is, first of all, to discuss aviation intelligently. Then, you must address him as "Autt." When "Autt" says, "You're a good kid!" you've succeeded in impressing him.

PAUL MASER

1843 N. 60th St. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

When we know "Speed," we know why the word "good-natured" came into our language. Paul is just as jolly as he is round. He has a hobby worthy of note, taxidermy.

HERTZEL MATUSOW

5304 Gainor Road Ac.
S.A., A.A., Junior Orchestra, Clio Club

Between gazing at beautiful girls and arguing with teachers, Hertz's time passes quickly in school. "Hertz" will always be remembered for his clever wit and love of classical music.

WM. McCLINTOCK

4037 Reno St. Ind.

As a member of our class, Bill is "solid." As soon as he graduates he will take his place in his chosen field of endeavor, and is sure to prove a useful citizen to the community.

ARLYNE JACOBS

914 Atwood Road Ac.
S.A., A.A.

Jay just wants to set the world on fire. After getting "hep" to those latest recordings, she's all set for her famous Friday nights. Jay just rues gym days. "Even Ann Sheridan would look bad in a gym suit," she laments.

SYLVIA JOBLIN

5235 Jefferson St. Com.
S.A., A.A., Social Service,
Banking Aide

"I wish they'd cut out the draft—I'm being left in the cold." Why just the way you dance ought to put you right back in the warm spot of many a fellow's heart.

DORIS JOHNSON

1211 59th St. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

Doris is a warbler of unusual talents. This musically inclined young lady is looking forward to graduating from Overbrook and then to being an entertainer. Doris spends her time around school dancing and jivin'.

DOROTHY JANE JONES

1543 N. Peach St. Com.
Delegate, S.A., A.A., Lunchroom Supv.

Says Jane, "School is the best time of one's life." She seems to bear this out in her scholastic activities. Jane's favorite subject, stenography, is one with which she hopes to break into the business world.

CHARLES MELMAN

5381 Hazelhurst St. B.
S.A., A.A.

Chuck looks forward to Fridays with eagerness, because school will be over for two whole days. Whatever you do, don't get "Chuck" started on the foreign situation. That's his pet subject. "Chuck's" ambition in life is to retire at 25.

IRWIN MELNICOVE

5406 Berks St. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

"Charley" is famous for predicting ball games and hopes that he will use this knack after graduation by becoming a sports writer. We're predicting that this talent will lead him to be a future Cy Peterman or Bill Cunningham.

JACK MERITZNECK

3944 Poplar St. Com.
S.A., Banker, A.A.

Jake can't fool us by saying that his favorite pastime is loafing. We'll always remember the energetic way in which he collects stamps and girls' phone numbers. With his ambitions Jake will surely forge ahead as an accountant.

DANIEL METZMAN

2459 N. 54th St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., President Clio Club, Treasurer of French Club

Here's a fellow who's principally responsible for the flood of corny jokes circulating around Overbrook. Danny is going to be a C.P.A. and he's sure to add some life and humor to his chosen profession.

JEANNETTE JONES

1619 N. Felton St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

Blondie's first love lies in roller skating, which she would like to develop to professional standards. In school, she finds most release in ordinary gossip. Her favorite subject is office practice, because then she can work in the Main Office.

ELAINE SONIA JUSTIN

1131 N. 65th St. Ac.
A.A., S.A., Parade Night

It takes superlatives to describe Elaine. She is very pretty, very smart, and very popular. Elaine claims that social science is definitely her favorite subject, because Mr. Schweinsberg was the teacher, and Mr. Hoagland is the teacher.

SHIRLEY KASKIN

5651 Lebanon Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Editor-in-Chief Record, Pres. Math. Club, Beacon Staff

Somewhere under those abundant curls there's a mightily active brain, but don't let that fool you. Shirl's no spectacled bookworm, but very human, complete with a sense of humor, vitality, and a charming personality.

EDNA KATZ

1714 N. Wilton St. Com.
S.A., A.A., Bank Teller, Dancing Club, Bowling Club, Social Service Club

With bowling, swimming, and dancing on her list, Edna leads a pretty active life, and her activity is further demonstrated in the wish to travel around the world.

AARON MILLER

4020 Fairmount Ave.
Mech. Arts
S.A., A.A.,

Art and "Artie" seem to go hand in hand. This future Rembrandt is looking forward to graduation and escape from English classes. Say, Art, what's it going to be, landscapes or be-you-tiful models?

WALTER MILLER

2226 N. Hobart St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Delegate, Alternate

"Milty" will be eternally endeared to the February, '42, class for his swell personality, his gift of oratory and his success with the girls.

JOSEPH MONTANA

1215 N. 50th St. Ind.
S.A., A.A.

To become a first class machinist is Joe's aim. He looks forward to graduation so he can immediately begin his desired work. Speaking of aversions, English is Joe's pet peeve. "Just can't see it," Joe claims.

RICHARD MOORE

1408 N. 61st St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

When it comes to teasing girls we always think of "Dick." Dick is fond of machine shop work and hopes that it will help him to get a steady job, so he can "live like a king."

EVELYN KAVITSKY

4107 Cambridge St. B.
S.A., A.A.

Evelyn's favorite subject is typing, "because," she declares, "I'm just the type." Her claim to fame lies in the amount of hamburgers she devours each Thursday. "Ickey" knits, and the results may readily be seen and appreciated.

MARJORIE KEISER

5455 Euclid Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Choral Art Club, Delegate, French Club

Besides singing, dancing, and collecting tall beaux, Marge also intends to make good as a laboratory technician. "She is pretty to walk with, and witty to talk with, and pleasant, too, to think on."

MARILYN KLEBANOFF

6122 Columbia Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

When "Sugar" dreams it's usually about those weekends and vacations. She enjoys social. But when it comes to physics, she laments, "I'm not happy." To pass the time away, Sugar frequently writes original lyrics to all the popular tunes.

SYLVIA KRAMER

5241 Euclid Ave. Com.
S.A., A.A.

Between talking about all the homework she has, and talking about her operation, "Syl" finds time to hate stenography and enjoy book-keeping—with a special bouquet for Overbrook's teachers of that subject. Syl aspires to a secretarial career.

HENRY MORGAN

5429 Diamond St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Alternate, Interbook Basketball

"Hank" divides his valuable time between his two favorite hobbies, sports and women. Mr. Morgan is contemplating marriage with much enthusiasm. We know he'll be a model husband.

WILLIAM J. MORRIS

221 N. Peach St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Sr. Orchestra and Band, Track Team, Secretary of Boys' A.A.

"Bill" plays trumpet with the "Arcadians." Bill has also played a "nifty trumpet" for O. H. S. in the band and orchestra. "Prof" hopes to further his education and become a dentist.

HARRY NELSON

1613 N. Conestoga St. E. A.
S.A., A.A.

"Lanky" Slim is 6 ft. 4 in. tall. He's a fellow who is ambitious enough to spend his odd moments in a cellar shop. Harry's ability in the mechanical line and his geniality will go far in enabling him to get ahead.

SAMUEL PLASKOW

5559 Locust St. M. A.
S.A., A.A.

It is rumored that Sam must be a lady's man. His pet expression is, "Hi, chicken." Besides thrilling the girls, he aspires to become a millionaire after graduating from the University of Pennsylvania. Good luck, Sam!

RUTH KRAVITZKIN

5234 Parkside Ave. Com.

S.A., A.A., Dramatic, Commercial Club

Ruth would hate to lose her friends at graduation, but we can assure her that Kravitz's friends won't be apt to forget her. Her smile and pleasant conversation have made Ruth a never-to-be-forgotten friend.

THELMA LAROS

5709 Nassau Rd. Ac.

Dramatic Club, S.A., A.A., Bowling

Larrie looks forward to having her name in lights somewhere on Broadway. If her gyrations as the Parade Night heroine are any test of her ability, she is sure to make her mark in her intended profession.

ELEANORE LEIBOWITZ

4127 Cambridge St. B.

S.A., A.A., Commercial Club, Tennis Club

A sparkling personality and a cheery smile for all make El well known and liked in Overbrook. Her ability to "keep in the swing of things" has won her many friends. With her disposition we can't see how she can miss achieving her ambition, always to be happy.

MILDRED LEON

732 Union St. Ac.

S.A., A.A., Music Festivals,
Art Club, Home Econ Club

Unobtrusive "Mil" has that disquieting habit of remaining silent, and then surprising others by walking off with the honors. She'd like to spend the rest of her life handing out stiff Latin assignments to suffering students.

HAROLD POGACHEFSKY

4225 Wyalusing Ave.
Com.

A.A., S.A., S.A. Representative

That classroom may have been quiet before, but here comes Pogyl! Not another moment of silence until the bell rings. Through that door, with Harold, came a ceaseless flow of gab and jokes.

LOUIS POLLONO

421 N. Daggett St. EMS

S.A., A.A.

Lou can be found enjoying himself most in the machine shop. With the experience he has had in Overbrook, he hopes to become a good toolmaker. When he's not tinkering, Lou enjoys a good book.

AARON POLONSKY

4227 Leidy Ave. Ac.

Pres. Midnite Oil Club, Vice Pres. of Latin Club, German Club, Senior French Club, S.A., A.A.

Aaron is in seventh heaven while gazing at Joan and listening to Tchaikowsky's piano concerto. When he comes back to earth he bends his efforts towards his goal, research work in criminology and anthropology (whatever they are!).

IRVIN POLSKY

5243 Diamond St. Ac.

S.A., A.A.

Irv is famous for being seen with Jack Polsky in and around school. Irv looks forward to owning a ranch in Texas with his partner, Jack. Outside of school Irv spends his time dabbling in photography and produces some excellent results.

DOROTHY LESITSKY

2100 N. Wanamaker St. Ac.

S.A., A.A., Music Festivals, A.A. Representative, Leaders, Dancing, Girls' Track Team, Tennis

Dot's passion for accuracy and technical perfection is evidenced by her preference for math; it will help her become a master of her art as a concert pianist—her ambition in life.

SYDEL LEVIN

3928 Pennsgrove St. Com.

S.A., A.A., Banker

Wherever you see Syd you'll see her busily working with her comb. She looks forward to the day when she will be carried across the threshold by the man of her dreams.

AIMEE LE VITA

1009 N. 64th St. Ac.

Sr. Orchestra, French Club, S.P.Q.R., Red Cross Class, S.A., A.A.

Sincere . . . genuine . . . Aimee was very appropriately named . . . A sweet nature combined with a quantity of brain . . . A music-lover, often seen carrying the familiar violin-case.

CONCETTA LIBBI

5124 Kershaw St. Com.

S.A., A.A., Banker

A long, brisk walk down 52nd Street is one of Connie's favorite pastimes. Going to the movies, and dancing, too, receive much of her attention. A career as an air hostess would be enough to make her walk on air.

JACK POLSKY

1706 N. Peach St. B.

S.A., A.A., A.A. Representative

Jake's only ambition in life is to own a ranch in Texas with his partner, Irv. Polsky. There he would find the solitude and escape from the pursuits of city life. Cabinet making is Jake's hobby.

JAMES POULOS

5161 Girard Ave. Ac.

S.A., A.A., President S.A., Delegate, Lunchroom Supervisor

F.D.R. collects stamps; Jimmy does, too. Such coincidence as these are not accidental. James is made of great material and in the outside world, as in school, he will be an outstanding and worthwhile member of his community.

LAWRENCE RAPPAPORT

2003 N. Hobart St. Ac.

Lunchroom Supervisor, S.A., A.A., S.A. Aide

Calling Dr. Rappaport! That's what it's going to be some year in the not too distant future. At present Larry centers his attention on chemistry. He has made a hobby of chemical experiments.

EUGENE REGAN

5143 Ogden St. Com.

S.A., A.A.

Gene has made many friends in Overbrook by his willingness to help a classmate in distress by offering his homework to be transformed into a reasonable facsimile. His only ambition in life is to be just filthy with money.

HENRIETTA LIBERTOW

5635 Christian St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Delegate, Tribunal, President of Spanish Club, French Club

Nettie of the broad and ready smile thinks it's a great life if you can take it, thinks French and Spanish are both beautiful and easy, looks forward to a happy marriage, and hopes to do whatever she does successfully — and we second the motion, Nettie!

IRENE LINDENMUTH

1509 N. Frazier St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

"Number, please — 1-9-4? Just one moment." This is what Renee will be saying at some time in the future if her ambition comes true. At present, her favorite expression is "Good-bye, now," but it will be all "Hello's" in the future.

MARILYN LOCK

828 Kenmore Road Com.
S.A., A.A.

This tall, blonde miss anxiously looks forward to the day when she will be a perfect secretary. Her efficiency and pleasantness should aid her in realizing her ambition. In addition, she likes to read, dance, and collect pictures.

RUTH E. LOVE

631 N. 56th St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

Picture little Puggy at her beloved typewriter, assiduously masticating a wad of gum, and dashing off an exclusive, world-shaking press dispatch! This to her is more exciting than any other profession. We'll see you in the by-lines, Puggy!

REUBEN REITER

4005 Ogden St. Com.
S.A., A.A., S.A. Aide, Math Club, Clio Club, Astronomy Club

Having trouble in your organization? Call in "Rube," the efficiency expert. He's a sure remedy for all your ails, even outside the business aspect. A pleasanter person would be hard to find.

PHILIP ROSATO

220 N. 65th St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

Phil holds the title of prize comedian and prize short-stuff of Overbrook. Nevertheless Phil has his serious side, as proved by the zeal with which he pursues his defense course. Ultimately, success will crown his efforts.

ALBERT ROSS

6113 Sansom St. A.
S.A., A.A. Delegate, Football Manager

Al is a "minute man." A gag a minute from a seemingly never endless number stored up in his head. There is also enough room inside that skull for a great ideal. Albert aspires to be a chemical engineer.

HERBERT ROSS

5801 Malvern Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Dramatic Club

Chemistry is important in our lives today and will be in the times to come. And so Herbert has chosen this as his future profession. Pardon me, will you please pass the H₂O!

MARILYN LOWENSTEIN

1734 Georges Lane Ac.
S.A., A.A., Treas. of Math. Club, Beacon, Chairman of Associates

You can be sure always to find "Mar" cheerful and smiling, especially when she's behind the steering wheel and all set for a good game of bowling. She is one of our many classmates who, at the completion of school, will be a career woman. Success, Mar!

DORIS LUDWIG

5707 Malvern Ave.
Ac. Fr.
Banker, Counsellor Aide, Pres. of Clio Club, S.A., A.A. Representative

Duggy becomes suddenly patriotic when she enters a French class, and protests that she is strictly an English-speaking person! Interior decorating is both her hobby and her intended profession. She finds bowling, horseback riding, and algebra a lot of fun—also Mr. Frazer.

LILLIAN FRANCES MACKREY

5817 W. Thompson St.
Com.
A.A., S.A.

For a girl who is famous for laughing, "Lil" has the rather odd ambition to be an undertaker. We wish her success in everything she undertakes. Writing letters and reading good books are her favorite pastimes, in spite of her expressed hatred of English.

RUTH MAIENSHEIN

5712 Oxford St. B.
S.A., A.A., Adv. Council, Delegate, Bowling, Dramatic

A broad smile and a friendly "Hi, kid" tells us its "Moony." The best part of school, she maintains, is going to the extra-curricular meetings. Gazing into the crystal ball, we see Ruth as announcer-in-chief of station WCAU.

JOSEPH ROVNER

3848 Poplar St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

Joe is an ardent admirer of the opposite sex, and wherever you see a beautiful girl there you will find him. If Joe should ever be drafted into the army, he would probably go mad seeing only men, men, and more men.

JOHN ROWAN

4245 Lancaster Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Camera Club

Jack, being intensely interested in the foreign policies, has chosen a career as a foreign correspondent. With his knowledge of French and his sound sense of judgment (i. e., to keep away from women) we know he will make good.

IRWIN RUTTENBERG

1737 N. Peach St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Locker Aide

Irwin is one of Overbrook's staunch football supporters. Irv's hobby is to keep records of the sporting world and famous events in history. His ambition in life is to obtain a position in the radio or television fields.

IRVIN SACHS

1812 N. 54th St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

When he's not eating or sleeping, Irv goes singing happily through the halls of our dear Alma Mater. After graduation, he hopes to have a good job in the Defense program. Here comes another recruit, Uncle Sam!

BERNICE MARGOLIS

1759 N. Aberdeen St. Com.
S.A., A.A., Social Service Club, Library Aide, Delegate

Unpunctual people who keep her waiting rub "Bernie" the wrong way, but in bookkeeping there's no rub because she always gets "A" in it. She thinks the most beautiful sound in the world is the 2:15 bell on Friday, and the most beautiful sight, a $50 pay-check at the end of the week.

SHIRLEY MARK

5421 Lebanon Ave. Ac.
Sec't. S.P.Q.R., Beacon
Literary Staff, Sec't. Treas.
Travel Club, A.A., S.A.

Don't look now but "Shirl" is probably out hunting "x" in some obnoxious quadratic, and she'll bring it back alive, as usual. Her talent for talking should help her as a lawyer.

ETTA MARQUARDT

5132 Ogden St. Com.
S.A., A.A., Swimming
Club

Etta is usually running around the halls looking for Mr. Boris. "Mark" is quite an equestrienne, dancer, and swimmer, and also shows a decided taste for good literature. Etta possesses splendid qualities both as a friend and as a classmate.

DOROTHY A. MAZZAGATTI

5125 Thompson St. Com.
S.A., Cheer Leader, A.A.
Representative

Three cheers for Dot, who has been holding up the rooting end of these many football games. She does not confine herself to spectator sports, but swims and skates with equal zest. However, her ultimate ambition is to become a good business woman.

ROBERT SAMUELS

6445 Haverford Ave. Com.
S.A., A.A., Secretary of Beacon

It's an aeroplane, and there's "Scoop" Samuels in the cockpit! That's only one ambition. When he's not in the air, "Scoop" would like to be a certified public accountant, a chemist and a diplomat.

HERSCHEL SANDBERG

5278 Jefferson Ac.
Chess Team, S.A., A.A., S.P.Q.R.

Hershey is known around school for playing chess. Not only does he play this game but also spends much time reading books about it. Some day we'll be addressing him as "Dr. Sandberg."

CARMEN SANTOPOLO

435 Simpson St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

Waltz me around again, Carmen. We heard you're the best dancer in these hyar parts and we just wanted to find out. Light-footed Carmen is also a whiz at typing and hopes for a position as typist after graduation.

STEVEN SARRAFIAN

5227 Haverford Ave. Ind. EE
A.A., S.A.

Steve is unique in that he will be genuinely sorry to leave Overbrook. His ambition in life is to join the United States Army Air Corps. Although he anxiously awaits graduation, Steve is going to miss the "swell" O.H.S. teaching staff.

IRENE MEREDITH

5137 Harlan St. Com.
S.A., A.A., Swimming
Club

Since swimming rates A-1 with "Shorty," she has been very active in the Swimming Club. Office practice has become her pet subject, because there are no tests and no homework.

CONSTANCE M. MERRITT

1211 N. 57th St. Com.
S.A., A.A. Representative

If you have ever been in one of "Connie's" English classes, you know all about her outstanding compositions. When you become a journalist, "Connie," don't forget us of O.H.S. in some of your books.

ELIZABETH MINTZER

5312 Oxford St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

Betty is constantly on the Honor Roll and yet is forever worrying about her studies. After graduating as a nurse, Betty will have a different source of worryment, people's health. She'll make being sick a pleasure.

GERTRUDE MOGUL

5345 Berks St. Ac.
President of Social Service Club, Delegate, Record
Book Staff

"To know her is to love her" is one of the sayings that we believe suits "Goldie" to perfection. Goldie is in her glory in Mr. Hoagland's social class and maybe this is an indication of her inclinations toward Social work.

HERBERT SAVITT

5106 Gainor Rd. Ac.
A.A., S.A., Delegate

Strike one!—but not against Herbert. That's just baseball lingo and he never tires talking about it. Some day he intends to stop this foul ball business, get down to work, and emerge with an M.D. after his name.

LEWIS H. SCHAEFFER

5428 Lansdowne Ave. E.
S.A., A.A.

Snoring is Lew's way of making music. Yes, he just loves to sleep. When Lewis feels ambitious, he rides, swims, or bowls. Not liking to take orders from anyone, Lewis has decided that he's going to be his own boss.

JAY EDWIN SCHUCHAR

5234 Berks St. Ac.
A.A. Representative, S.A.,
A.A.

Wherever there's a babble of baseball talk, "Jazzbo" is sure to be right in the middle. His uncontrollable tongue gets Jay into plenty of mischief. But, Jay's aspirations are high. Some day he'll be a chemical engineer.

MARTIN SCHWARTZ

5265 Jefferson St. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

Although gazing at scenery and practicing medicine seem at opposite poles, "Moish" has EYES for both. The former is his present pastime, and the latter, his future profession, he hopes.

MAE VIOLET MOORE

145 N. 59th St. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

Mae declares that chewing not only aids in the calculations of Physics, but even enables her to relax when she is following her favorite occupation, reading. If this formula really works, Mae should go far in Business College.

VERA MOORE

5533 Wyalusing Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

Mitzie on graduating will probably join the ranks of the Overbrook Alumni in the theatrical world. As soon as real success comes her way she will hop a boat to Hawaii, where she can realize her ambition to learn how to do the "Hula."

VERONICA M. MOORE

5139 Reno St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

"Veron" is the proper tonic for any gloomy-minded young man or somber boss. She possesses a million dollar smile and a swell disposition. "A face that cannot smile is never good," so said a great philosopher and so opines our Veronica.

VIVIAN LOUISE MOORE

649 N. 56th St. Ac.
A.A., Leaders' Club, Alternate

"Viv" goes in for sports in a big way. Her success in athletics in Overbrook has induced her to become a gym teacher. Perhaps some day we will find her teaching girls at Overbrook how to use "horses." No, we mean in the gym.

ALVIN SELIGMAN

5422 Euclid Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Alternate, Delegate, Boys' A.A. Representative

You can't keep a straight face when Alvin emits one of his famous puns. After school he indulges in sports with the rest of the gang. Alvin also gets a big kick out of playing the harmonica.

MARVIN SHATZ

4321 Pennsgrove St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

"Slatz" is a very good "friend" of Mr. Jackson because of his various "chats" with that gentleman. He is now taking the defense course in machine tool operation and is headed for a good paying job in that field.

NORMAN SHEAR

1748 N. Peach St. Ac.

Where there's "Norm," there's a smile; he's never without one. After graduation, he intends to take a course in aeronautical construction and designing. Whatever he does, his sparkling personality will carry him to the top.

HARRY SHMUKLER

1617 N. 52nd St. Ac.
Football Team, A.A. Representative, S.A., A.A., Alternate

Harry is an unofficial dating bureau. Much of his time is spent trying to "fix up" Sid Siegel. Although he has enough energy to serve on Overbrook's football squad, Harry likes the easiest subjects.

ALICE MORGAN

111 N. Redfield St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

"No kiddin'," Dimples is conscientious about her homework (especially between 8:45 and 9:00 o'clock in the morning). But, seriously, she's a hard worker with high ambitions, and a person who really ought to get somewhere in the business world.

MOLLIE MOSHEN

5740 Woodcrest Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Tennis Club, Dancing Club, Swimming Club

Mollie's main interests are dancing and good music. As for her dancing, it's hard to surpass, for nonchalance and grace is her style. Mollie's charming personality will help her to achieve whatsoever she may desire.

HELEN NISSLEY

1448 N. 57th St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

Here is one young miss who need never bother to count calories. She attributes her streamlined figure to bowling and running from class to class. Undoubtedly after graduation Helen is going to rush into a good job at a bank.

EDNA NOBLE

4511 Parrish St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

"Eddie" spends much of her time reading and enjoying singing. She does not like giving oral talks in English and stays away from conceited people. She intends to go to business school when she graduates from O. H. S.

SIDNEY J. SIEGEL

5214 Columbia Ave.
Mech. Arts
Football, Camera Club, Clio Club, A.A., S.A.

"Pop Siegel" likes intelligent arguments, good books, and, of course, girls. His hobbies are photography, radio, and drafting. His whole philosophy lies in these words: "Past is past; the future is coming—Work for that."

GEORGE SIMPSON

412 N. Robinson St.
Ind. Elec.
S.A., A.A.

"Simp" is a quiet, unassuming chap who finally admitted that he is naturally good at any fishing, riding, and swimming. His happiest day will be the one following graduation when he will receive his hard fought for, well earned, sheepskin. Here's luck to a future boatbuilder with great ideas.

HENRY SMITH

5947 Summer St.
A.A., S.A., S.A. Captain

Henry loathes getting up early to go to school. He hopes to secure a job upon graduation, but, no doubt, he'll have to work on the noon shift. His pet expression is: "Not fresh, just friendly." Wonder what he means?

THEODORE SOOKIASIAN

6101 Christian St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Delegate, Senior Orchestra, Advisory Council, Peace Club, Swing Band

Getting "hep" by "slapping the bass" is "Sooky's" school fame. But he also has his serious moments, because Theodore is thinking seriously about practicing medicine.

ROSALIE EARNESTINE OLIVIER

5637 Wyalusing Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

"Rosebud's" swell disposition alone elevates her above the rank of the ordinary student. She has a profound interest in sociology which arises from her desire to aid the less fortunate. No doubt Rosalie will go far in her chosen field—nursing.

JEAN OTTO

549 N. 52nd St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

"We'll dream of sweet Jeannie with the light brown hair." Instead of merely "floating like a zephyr," as in the song, our "Jeannie" follows a more strenuous routine of dancing.

JUANITA OWENS

747 N. 46th St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

"Nita" is another Juliet who sighs "parting is such sweet sorrow." While at Overbrook Nita occupied her time discussing the virtues of the Romeos. However, after graduation, Nita will give up her romantic pastime in favor of a good office job.

SADIE OXMAN

4178 Leidy Ave.
Ac. and Com.
Parade Night, Jr. Beacon

For goodness sake, is "Short Stuff" under somebody's feet again? Here's a little girl with tall ambitions. She aspires to be a somebody in medicine. We're sure she'll succeed.

SEYMOUR SORIN

5347 Oxford St. Ac.
A.A., S.A., Delegate

Standing in front of a class delivering a short oration, is typical of Seymour. However, "Cy" does not want to be an orator, but a partner in his father's business. He likes gym and plays basketball frequently.

SEBASTIAN SPATICHIA

229 N. Robinson St.
E. B. S.
A.A., S.A., Stage Crew

"Spats" is always whistling or dancing. No wonder he's so happy; his three years at Overbrook have been a real success. It must be wonderful to love school so much! Sebastian has his heart set on being a builder.

DONALD TABB

3900 Brown St. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

Where there's a possibility for a wise crack, "Don" is quick on the trigger. His continuous sleep can only be broken by the news of Overbrook's winning a football championship. Donald will have no difficulty in achieving his ambition, working for the W. P. A.

NICK TALIO

6215 Race St. E.B.S.
S.A., A.A., Stage Crew Captain

Nick is one of those fellows in our class that would like to be his own boss. His black, shiny hair and his ability to "cut a rug" have made him well-known around school.

INEZ PARKER

5615 Haverford Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Library Aide,
Social Service Club

"Skie" extends her musical talents to the vocal field and is an accomplished singer. It is no surprise to us to learn that in the future "Skie" intends to become a music teacher.

NORMA PATTERSON

5610 Haddington St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Locker Captain, Freshman Counsellor

One of Overbrook's most versatile seniors is "Pat." She has been every type of aide at Overbrook. Moreover, she is an excellent athlete and mathematician. You will have to go some to top that record!

CAROLINE PERNA

721 N. 65th St. Ac.
A.A., S.A. Aide, Library Aide,
Bowling Club

Although she's full of fun and mischief, Carol cannot be classified as a "frivolous femme." Her feet are firmly fixed on the road leading to a career in medicine. Her friendliness will win her many patients and friends.

MARGARET PETERS

1517 N. Allison St. Com.
Tennis, Bowling, Round Robin,
A.A. Representative, Delegate,
A.A. and S.A. Member

On weekends this delightfully feminine as well as athletic girl enjoys herself bowling or dancing with handsome young men. Pete hopes to become a private secretary and marry the boss.

STANLEY J. TOSCANI

109 N. Dewey St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

Because of his sincerity and frankness, "Stan" is famous in O. H. S. Aside from these qualities, he is generous and willing to help fellow students. His aptitude for stenog. should be a great asset to him in his future position.

ROBERT WACHS

5421 Berks St. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

For his combination of good humor and seriousness, Bob is well liked among his classmates. Aside from sports, his favorite subject is algebra. Although he doesn't care for physics, he does like mathematics and hopes to become an accountant after graduation.

WILLIAM WAGNER

1443 N. Allison St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

Although "Bill's" favorite pastime in school is "day-dreaming," he settles down after 2:15 and becomes absorbed in the machinist's course offered as a defense class. To get a good job, to save some money, and to travel are his ambitions. Bon voyage, Bill!

CARL L. WALDEN

1216 N. Frazier St. Ind.
S.A., A.A., S.A. Aide, Banker

Here is one student who admits he likes Overbrook! "Walback" does like school, especially architectural drawing. In fact, Carl hopes to go to Hampton Institute to study architecture. He is most happy when driving.

GLORIA PIUNTI

5330 Stiles St. Com.
S.A., A.A., Banking Officer

After four years of high school and a taste of many different subjects, Gloria has decided what she likes the most. Office practice is first and typing runs a close second. But she can't stand English.

JANET POINDEXTER

5530 Girard Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

If a prize could be given to the most conscientious student in the class, it would unanimously be awarded to Janet. Here at Overbrook, she has always come out on top as far as marks go, because of her continuous hard work.

BERNICE POLS

2212 N. 58th St. Com.
S.A., A.A., Beacon Business Staff, Record Book Secretarial Staff

There must be something magnetic about the Beacon office. Bernice can always be found there in her spare moments. Perhaps it is during this time that Bunny dreams about graduation.

HELEN PRIMAVERA

720 N. 65th St. Com.
A.A., S.A., Banker

Helen looks forward to graduation from Overbrook. Having obtained her education she would like to become financially independent and devote herself to secretarial work. Helen's favorite pastime around school is listening to recordings and reading.

THOMAS WATSON

5744 Dunlap St. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

With that happy-go-lucky manner of his, "Watso" has gained many friends. Though dates and famous men aren't along his line, triangles, sines, and cosines are. With his love for math and his leaning toward airplane modeling, he should make a very successful aeronautical engineer.

JULIUS WEINSTEIN

1712 Georges Lane Ac.
A.A., S.A., Band

Even though he's small, Julius has big ideas. He intends to further his education in college and later to become a successful business man. In the meantime, here in O. H. S. he enjoys social science.

JERRY WHITTEN

5400 Wyndale Ave. Acad.
A.A., S.A.

If you hear some one loudly praising the Dodgers, you can be sure it's "Jerry." He is also a loyal rooter for our own baseball team. His hobby is eating; his pet subject, math. He wants a good job and a successful marriage.

BENJAMIN WILLIAMS

37 N. Redfield St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Track, Parade Night, Music Festival

"Benny" is interested in many varied subjects; his favorite pastime here is athletics. His sense of sportsmanship should make him as successful in life as he has been in his gym work.

FRANCES FRANCINNE RADER

5704 Wyndale Ave. Com.
S.A., A.A., Lunchroom
Aide, Riding Club

Fran has already picked out her husband.
All he has to do is ask her to marry him. Until that wonderful day, she hopes to spend her time profitably as a social worker.

DOROTHY LACONIA RICE

1240 N. 59th St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Music Festival, Midnite Oil, Social Service

Overbrook abounds in talented people. Dorothy is one of them. She is known for her never-failing advice to the lovelorn. Her life's ambition is to be a social worker.

NAOMI RITTENBERG

5400 Arlington St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Tribunal, Record Book Staff

Nomi is not content to be just a high school graduate but aspires to attend schools of higher learning. Nomi is a classical-recording enthusiast. Aside from music, she has a keen interest in social problems.

DORIS K. RODGERS

6147 Columbia Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Drum Majorette of School Band

Doris is known for her strutting and twirling.
She's tops as far as we're concerned. Our band, with which she enjoys working so much, will surely be at a great loss without her.

MATTHEW M.
WILLIAMS

612 N. 55th St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Sr. Orchestra

Where there is music, there is "Matt." He has made some mighty fine musical contributions on his trombone to the senior orchestra. Matt is going to "make hay while the sun shines." He hopes to retire when he is 60.

SAMUEL ARTHUR WILLIAMS, JR.

735 N. 43rd St. Com.
S.A., A.A., Football Team, Track Team

Sam is famous for his musical talent and his fine work on the football and track teams. With his aptitude for both of these arts, he should be successful whether he becomes a football coach or a concert artist.

KENNETH ZEIDNER

5783 Nassau Rd. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

Ken, with an inquisitive mind, enjoys biology where he has become acquainted with the different forms of life.
This desire to probe into things probably leads to his enjoyment of mystery stories. He is looking forward to being an insurance broker.

SYLVIA ROSEN

1728 N. Aberdeen St.
Com.
S.A., Social Service, A.A., Library Aide

The happiest moment in Sylv's school life is 2:15 on any Friday afternoon. In the 48 hours that follow Sylvia enjoys bowling, dancing, and movies. That doesn't give you much time for homework, does it, Sylvia?

MONA ROSS

5744 Woodcrest Ave. Com.

S.A., A.A., Social Service Club, Parade Night, Music Festival

The ideal roster for Mona would be seven periods of English every day because of a certain Mr. Hamilton. After that Mona creates melody with her very beautiful voice.

RUTH ROTFELD

2038 N. 57th St. B.

S.A., A.A., Delegate, Alternate, Secretarial Staff of Record Book, Social Service, A.A. Aide.

Ruth looks forward with enthusiasm to whatever is to come. It goes hand in hand with a smiling face and cheery disposition that brightens even the dull-est classroom.

SARAH RUBIN

3832 Cambridge St. B.

S.A., A.A.

Sarah has a heart of gold. She spends her extra time collecting for the Infantile Paralysis Fund. That's one reason why she hates to have homework over the weekend. We certainly do agree with you one hundred per cent!

MAYBELLE C. RUGGIERI

744 N. 41st St. Com.

S.A., A.A.

School is all right, but it only lasts five hours a day. Our problem is how to spend the remaining hours. Maybelle has solved this. She attends scout meetings and is an enthusiastic participant in all scout activities.

JOSEPHINE SACCO

6233 Vine St. Com.

S.A., A.A., Commercial Club, Record Book Secretarial Staff, A.A., Representative, Beacon Business Staff

"California, here comes Jo!" We'll all celebrate when Josephine's dreams come true and she travels out to the wild and woolly West. We were just thinking that maybe Jo was casting a hopeful eye toward Hollywood.

BERNICE SCHAEFFER

5630 Berks St. Ac.

"Her heart was as great as the world, but there was no room in it to hold the memory of wrong." A cheerful smile, a beautiful song, and a graceful dance are typical of "Bern."

ROSEMARY SCHIAVELLO

1466 N. 62nd St.

President of 11B to 12B, Vice President of 11A, Delegate, A.A. Clubs

Everyone will remember the girl who always read the homeroom bulletin. Rosemary has held offices since she's been in the school. She loves to draw, studies art, and will some day be an Interior Decorator.

HARRIET SCHULTZ

5418 Wyndale Ave. Ac.

S.A., A.A., Alternate, Gym Aide

Because Harriet devotes much time to playing the piano and ice skating, she doesn't have enough ambition left to study those long French assignments. Har loves to go to chorus, where she can sing her favorite, "The Immortal Song."

ANNETTE SCHWARTZ

5214 Heston St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., A.A. Representative, Swimming, Tennis, Science Club

Annette devotes after-school hours to swimming, ice skating or tennis. After graduation, she expects to have a rip-roaring good time in Florida. Following this vacation, Annette is in for years of preparation for the nursing profession.

KATHRYN SEELEY

1525 N. Conestoga Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., A.A. Board, Record Book Staff, Library Aide, Athletic Clubs

Kay is an outstanding athlete and an excellent student. Kay claims that the foreign languages make her appreciate English. Kathryn hopes to own a ranch in the not too distant future.

CLAIRE SEGAL

139 N. Dewey St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

"Giggles," a swell representative of Overbrook's femininity, hasn't let a quiet moment go by during high school life. Chewing gum and day dreaming are her pastimes. If you have a poor sense of humor stay away from Claire and, remember, we warned you!

JOAN SEIDEL

5403 Woodbine Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Beacon, Travel Club, Latin Club, Record Book Staff

Joan is an all-round girl who finds as much enjoyment in intellectual pursuits as in athletics. Thus she hopes to attain her ambition in life, which is to be, "Healthy, wealthy, and wise."

GLORIA SELMI

1303 N. 52nd St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

If you think you heard strange cackling sounds, don't be alarmed. It's only "Giggles" pouring forth her famous laugh. Swimming must mean a great deal to Gloria because she's still hot on the trace for the Overbrook swimming pool.

HARRIET SHELTON

1039 N. 67th St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

Babe, the petite miss of the class, likes art and operating machines in the office practice class. Although she enjoys office work, Harriet refuses to admit her ambition for fear someone might change her mind for her.

GERTRUDE SHUSTER

5159 Funston St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

Although Gerty lacks the energy to walk steps Gertrude is ambition personified when it comes to music. During her study time she plays the piano and writes musical compositions. This piano virtuoso hopes to have an all-girl orchestra.

MARION CELIA SHUSTERMAN

5335 Arlington St. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

When you see a beautiful, big car whizz past, you can be assured that it's "Shusty" trying to beat a little, pesty red light. "Shusty" spends her spare time thinking of the day when she'll be a laboratory technician (or a good wife).

GLORIA SIBULKIN

1729 N. Lindenwood St. Com.

Sec'y of Commercial Club, Treasurer of Social Service Club, Beacon Staff, S.A., A.A.

"Gittie" is preparing for a secretarial post after she is relieved from her strenuous duties at O. H. S. She finds relaxation in her unusual love for good music.

FRANCES M. SILVER

645 Preston St. Com.

S.A., A.A., Guidance Aide

"Chub," the kibitzer, is a frolicking member of the fair sex. Myrt looks forward to that long-awaited day when she'll measure five feet in her stockinged feet. Her pet dislikes are conceited people and being called Fanny.

RUTH SINGER

1714 N. Peach St. Com.

S.A., A.A.

For knowing the latest dance steps, "Rickey" rates an "A." Her present delight is writing letters to the Army fellows, but she'll be happiest when she can sport a sparkler on the third finger of her left hand.

BEATRICE SIRULNIK

3939 Pennsgrove St. Ac.

Beacon Pub. Staff, A.A., S.A.

Wherever there's a comb, Bebe gets busy. Wherever there's a piano, she goes to it. She is one of the best musicians of the class. Before going to college, Beatrice would welcome a vacation.

MARY ELEANOR SMITH

5427 Master St. Com.

S.A., A.A.

"El" is that tall miss who strolls through Overbrook's halls singing merrily. El rushes to the office-practice class, because office practice is her forte. Eleanor looks forward to working in an office as a private secretary, perhaps.

EVELYN JEAN SMITH

5536 Lansdowne Ave. Ac.

S.A., A.A., Locker Captain, Serg. Color Guard, Sigma Delta Aide

"Jeanie," the glamorous Color Guard, just loves to "twirl." In school her mind constantly wanders to a certain person named Jerry. Some day she hopes to be singing "California, here I come."

SONIA SMITH

4230 Stiles St. Com.

S.A., A.A., Treasurer of 12B Class, Beacon Business Staff, Dancing Club

As class treasurer "Sonny" handled much "filthy lucre." When not playing the role of King Midas, Sonia indulges in bowling, typing, or playing the piano. Some day she'll be "somebody's stenog."

LOUISE HARRIET SNYDER

5434 W. Berks St. Com.

S.A., A.A., Secretary of the Student's Association, Assistant Business Manager of Beacon, Record Staff, Record Book Collector

"Weez" has her hands and head in everything around school. When she's not busy with extra-curricular activities, Louise is either singing or knitting.

ROSLYN SNYDER

3933 Pennsgrove St. Ac.
Com.

S.A., A.A., Commercial Club, Library Aide, Social Service Club

"Roz," although shy, has acquired many friends at Overbrook. Her ambition is to become an advertising executive. As for history, it has become Rozzie's pet subject, while gym is still on her black list.

ROSLYN SOLONER

439 N. 52nd St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

Because "Roz" is always supplied with sufficient papers, rulers, pencils, etc., for everyone, she has earned the title "Chief Lender." She leaves O. H. S. with but one regret; she still can't find the swimming pool.

BEATRICE SPECTOR

5818 Hazel Ave. Ac.
A.A., S.A., Dramatic Club

"Bonny," the class actress, takes delight in "emoting" over a microphone. Of course, her debut as an actress will be the greatest moment in her life. Some day Beatrice's voice will travel through the wires of a large radio network.

BERNICE SPECTOR

5710 Malvern Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

It seems that Morrie is not only "Chicken's" chief reason for living, but also the extent of her vocabulary. Bernice is known for her walk and pretty shoes. The sound of French is music to her ears, but gossip is just discord.

BEATRICE SPIEGEL

5048 Gainor Road. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

Before "Tuppy" joins the soldier boys at camp, she intends to have a gay time at the Prom. When she's not dreaming of that gala event, Beatrice is either reading or knitting.

SELMA SPIEGEL

1753 N. Lindenwood St. Com.
S.A., A.A., Social Service, Swimming Club

Likeable "Spieg" aspires to be a hard working secretary. Thumbs up for her favorite pastime, collecting autographs, but nix to temperamental people. She still can't get over the fact that the Panthers once "Did" beat West Philly.

ALYSE STERN

5600 Gainor Road Ac.
S.A., A.A.

Always happy, always smiling — that's "Babs"! Wherever she goeth, goeth her knitting. Alyse can be seen at almost anytime working on another of her beautiful sweaters. Alyse rides horseback, hates gossip, and looks forward to a very happy life.

GENEVA TAYLOR

4833 Haverford Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

Nothing can stop Jennie's persistent giggling and talking. Her talking and laughter, interspersed with coy shrieks of "Lamp this," herald her presence everywhere. Her cherished hope of becoming a school teacher will certainly be fulfilled.

JULIA C. TAYLOR

1247 N. 58th St. Ac.

Band, S.A., A.A.

"Reds'" sweet, melodious whistling enchants all who hear it. In addition to her talents in the musical line, she is also interested in surgery. The medical profession will some day be enriched by our own Julia.

ELIZABETH TERZANO

1618 N. 61st St. Com.

S.A., A.A., Basketball, Tennis, Round Robin, Cheerleader

With all her charm and personality, "Libby" is very popular. Her aptitude for sports makes her outstanding in basketball, bowling, and skating. Gym is her favorite subject. She hopes to become a private secretary.

MINNIE TRACHTMAN

4041 Girard Ave. Com.

S.A., A.A.

"M" stands for Modesty and Min certainly has a claim to that quality. However, she can't deny her ability when it comes to dancing and swimming. Min specializes in office practice and typing and hopes for success in business.

RUTH EMMA TUSTIN

5215 Stiles St. Com.

S.A., A.A., A.A. Representative, Social Service Club

Ruth will be a receptionist after she receives that significant white scroll. She is well fitted for her planned role, for she is cheerful, understanding, and makes friends easily. She says thumbs down on all routine work.

GEORGIA VATSOS

6038 Locust St. Bus.

S.A., A.A., Bowling, Round Robin Club.

Aside from English and students who sing "Georgia on My Mind," Georgia finds nothing wrong with O. H. S. Next to gym, typing is her favorite subject, and she hopes to use it in her future position.

DELIA VAUGHN

5738 Arch St. Ac.

S.A., A.A.

Delia is a little bit of a girl with a big heart and a big smile. She is famous for her abilities along the musical and dancing lines. After she graduates, Delia hopes to continue her academic work.

ESSIE WAGMAN

229 S. 40th St. Com.

S.A., A.A., Banker

Washington seems to hold some great attraction for "Es." She looks forward to graduation so that she can go there. Her knowledge of commercial subjects and her likeness for stenog. should aid in her position in Washington.

SHIRLEY WALDMAN

5654 Woodcrest Ave. Ac.

Aide, S.A., A.A., Delegate, Riding Club

"Shirl's" really an ambitious girl. She wants to be self-supporting in a big way. In today's complex world, that's rather a large order; but we're sure that Shirley has the "spunk" to accomplish this.

MIRIAM WALKER

5520 Master St. Com.
Tribunal, A.A., S.A., A.A.
Representative, Leaders

Are you worried about your diet? If so, consult "Peggy," who is famous for being "vitamin conscious." She is also noted for her basketball and tennis. Speaking of tennis—some day she may furnish competition for Alice Marble.

FREDA WEINBERG

4917 Parkside Ave. Ac.
A.A., S.A., Delegate, Riding Club

"Fritzie's" biggest asset is her naturally golden hair, as for her liabilities—none, of course. "Fritz" yearns for a handsome young man, full of life, and personality. She spends her spare time knitting and horseback riding.

GLADYS WEISS

1727 N. Wilton St. Com.
S.A., A.A., Social Service,
Bowling, Alternate

"Goldie" doesn't enjoy crowds, except when at a dance or in a bowling alley. She gets a thrill when she sees all the pins knocked down. In the future may you get all "strikes" and "spares."

SHIRLEY WEISSMAN

1726 N. Lindenwood St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Swimming,
Tennis, Bowling

Here in Overbrook, "Shirl's" favorite pastime is making friends. Aside from enjoying these friendships, she likes social science, reading, and knitting. She is looking forward to commencement, and then to securing a "dream" job.

MILDRED LOUISE WIEN

844 Marlyn Rd. Com.
S.A., A.A., Gym Aide

Because Hoodie loves music, she spends much time collecting records. When music loses its charm, she settles down with her knitting and relaxes. With her knowledge of commercial subjects she will probably become a very capable secretary.

ALICE WILLIAMS

523 N. 56th St. Ac.
S.A., A.A.

"Kit" is that quiet, conscientious girl who is always ready to help. She is a lover of classical music and has her own excellent record collection. In Kit we believe we've found the qualities that go into the making of the perfect Social Service Worker.

HERMOINE WILLIAMS

5222 Heston St. Com.
Social Service, Record Book Staff, S.A., A.A.

Although "Moinie" is kept busy with book-keeping, she knits to fill in spare time. This desire to make the most of her spare moments, combined with her enjoyment of typing, will make her tops anywhere.

THELMA WILLIAMS

4319 Brown St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

With her smile and refined nature, Blondie is well liked by her classmates. Her appreciation of literature and her ability at the piano are the foundation of her manners. After Thelma graduates, she hopes to become a secretary.

BARBARA PEARL WINTHROP

1263 N. 58th St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Tennis and Basketball Clubs

"Bobbie" is not only swift on the basketball floor, but is speedy in the corridors as well. Sociology is what she likes best. After graduating she hopes to become a dietitian.

GRACE WINTHROP

266 S. 58th St. Com.
Cheerleader, S.A., A.A., Delegate

"The busy bee has no time for sorrow." Gracie, with her many extra-curricular activities, is famous for keeping busy. She finds time to be pleasant and agreeable, though. She's sure to succeed as a vocalist for a band.

CHARLOTTE WOLF

5403 Lebanon Ave. Ac.
A.A., S.A.

Charlotte is a hard-working Record Collector, without whom we could scarcely get along. Usually, when she isn't collecting dollars, she is knitting or dancing. Although she isn't decided about her future, we wish her success in whatever she does.

MARY H. WORMAN

6152 Haverford Ave.
Com.

A.A. Representative, S.A.,
A.A.

Having taken advantage of most of the commercial opportunities O. H. S. offers, "Blondie" is one of those who have enjoyed school life. Being famous for her precise work, she seems to be well fitted for a private secretary's position.

CHARLOTTE YOUNG

5926 Vine St. Music
S.A., A.A., Talent Assembly

"Chickie" is talented in the musical line. That subject is not only her favorite in school, but it is her hobby as well. After she graduates, she hopes to further her education to become a music teacher.

LOUISE J. YOUNG

200 N. 50th St. Ac.
S.A., A.A., A.A. Representative,
Leaders Club

"Yes! Indeed," Lou declares, "I hope to become a teacher that the students will love." If she continues the practice of making others happy, we're sure that she will succeed in her life's ambition.

FRANCYS ZALTZMAN

5618 Woodcrest Ave. Ac.
S.A., A.A., Record Book
Advertising Staff

Zaltzie's future is a literary one. She hopes to have a by-line on some syndicated feature and to write her own novel. If all her reading has any bearing on her work, we'll be first to buy her books.

ISOBEL ZUCKERMAN

3920 Poplar St. Com.
S.A., A.A.

Isobel's sense of humor and pleasant personality should go far toward making her successful in the world of business. We know that she will live up to Overbrook's traditions and prove an asset to her chosen profession.

ELLEN GOLDIN

5818 Woodcrest Ave. Ac.

S.A., A.A., Art-Editor of Record Book, Senior Orchestra, Assistant Editor of Beacon

Combination artist, journalist and flutist, Ellen excels in school. Ellen looks forward to attending the Academy of Fine Arts. Here's to a coming great artist!

CLIFFORD B. HILL

1217 N. Alden St. Ac.

S.A., A.A.

Cliff is an ardent gymnast and his favorite pastimes around school have been in the sports line. Otherwise, he is famous for two things: first, his photography; second, his "banging himself up." Cliff's ambition is graduation from college.

LOUIS VENTURA

4906 Lancaster Ave. Com.

S.A., A.A.

For athletic talent in our school, we turn to "Lou." Down in the gym he's the fellow with the muscles and brawn. To balance his he-man activities "Lou" has taken the Commercial course in order to enter the business world.

CLASS HISTORY

Diary of the Class of February '42

February, '39

Dear Diary,

Finally crashed the portals of O. H. S. . . . confusion . . . no up-stairways, no down-stairways . . . Spellbound by Parade Night . . . Naomi Bell and Grace Winthrop performed at our first A. A. Dance—Elected Stanley Eisman and Fay Forman to the Advisory Council.

September, '39

Dear Diary,

Am "big shot" in Overbrook now (an educated freshy) . . . Class talent came to the lime-light this term—Eleanor Battafarano, Michelena Barone, Joyce Marks, Donald Finkelstein, and Namoi Bell gave a stupendous performance in the Talent Assembly . . . Enthusiastically attended all football games . . . our own classmates, Eddie Bershad and Thomas Bressi helped to cheer us on.

February, '40

Dear Diary,

Our class finally became organized—chose Mr. Boris as our sponsor—Flying Jenny flew out of the comic strips right into our class-mascot pins . . . our first officers were Tong Hing, president; Rosemary Schiavello, vice-president; Harriet Greenspan, secretary; Sonia Smith, treasurer . . . Watched Mollie Mickman's outstanding performance in "What A Life" . . . sported school ring—Dot Dudley already exhibited her athletic ability as captain of the track team.

September, '40

Dear Diary,

Made history this term—O. H. S. BEAT WEST PHILLY—SCORE 6-0 . . . Our first class dance was a gala affair—attended Leaders' Lark . . .

CLASS HISTORY

Success for this term attributed to Rosemary Schiavello, president; Thomas Bressi, vice-president; Flora Esposito, secretary; Beatrice Adams, treasurer — Michelina Barone, Jules Grosswald, Bernice Schaffer, and Eleanor Battafarano rendered musical numbers in the Educational Pageant at the Academy of Music.

February, '41

Dear Diary,

Seniors at last! Ah, Sweet Mystery of Overbrook—is solved . . . Money, money all around, but not a cent for me . . . Beatrice Adams, Claire Garfield, Stanley Eisman, Norman Shear, and Norman Albright elected to the Cabinet. Responsible for bringing the most stupendous class in the history of Overbrook through to success — Rosemary Schiavello, president; Thomas Bressi, vice-president; Florence Harnley, secretary; Sonia Smith, treasurer . . .

Jimmy Poulos and Elaine Finkel elected to lead school . . . Lost our hearts at West Point.

Dear Diary,

"Tempus fugit" . . . Everything's happening at once . . . Graduation pictures of students—passed out . . . Suave Jules Grosswald donned the garb of Chief Justice . . . Many of our gang in Parade Night . . . Stan Channick and Dot Dudley elected A.A. prexies. Ellen Golden was assistant editor of Beacon, Irene Cohen was feature editor. 39 inducted into Sigma Delta . . . Honored by Citizenship Award . . . Received Beacon Keys . . . Got orchestra pins . . . Glamorous femmes and handsome beau brummels tripped the light fantastic at Senior Prom.

January 29

Once again we crashed the portals of Overbrook!

SIGMA DELTA

To those students who are outstanding in scholarship, character, and extra curricular activities goes the highest honor Overbrook High School can award—membership in Sigma Delta.

ORCHESTRA

Members of the Class of January '42, contributed to the building of a great Overbrook Orchestra. Seniors who aided in the creation of an ensemble of unprecedented size, in the doubling of the repertoire were: Donald Finklestein, Ellen Goldin, Bernard Kirshbaum, Aimee Le Vita, Joyce Marks, and Theodore Sookasian.

Sixty musicians, the largest in Hilltopper orchestra history, comprised the Jazz-coached string slappers. Ours was the only high school ensemble to perform weekly on assembly.

ADDS RICHNESS TO LIFE

Time and Time again in rehearsal and in drill, Mr. Guy Shortz, energetic conductor of the new and greater O. H. S. Band, has expressed complete satisfaction with his organization.

The Shortz-strutters under the gyrations of the baton of Doris Rodgers distinguished themselves on gridiron and stage. They marched and played between halves at football contests decked out in their new Orange, Black, and White uniforms.

PRACTICING OUR SOCIAL GRACES

ANTICIPATION

We discuss the time and place—heated pros and cons . . . we purchase the much coveted tickets . . . make a date with the O. A. O. (one and only) . . . select a gown—rent a tux . . . everything's ready and—

LET'S GO

January 23 . . . a gay night for all 12B "promettes" and "prometters" . . . handsome Lotharios and alluring lovely ladies—merry couples . . . convertables (and other "pieces" of transportation) . . . the swankiest of swank, the Bellevue Stratford Hotel, . . . scintillating, syncopated songs by Clarence Fuhrman and his Rhythmeteers . . . gowns—red, blue, pink, white, green, black—a kaleidoscope of dazzling colors . . . tuxedos, tails . . . pounding hearts . . . jiving feet . . . beaming faces . . . friendly greetings . . . laughter, music, dancing, chatting — a whirl of merriment and hilarity . . . the paragon of Balls . . . the epitome of frivolity . . . the night of nights for the class of February '42.

FINIS

A huge success . . . couldn't have been more exciting, more thrilling, more fun . . . a few hangovers but many memories!

TRAVEL BROADENS ONE

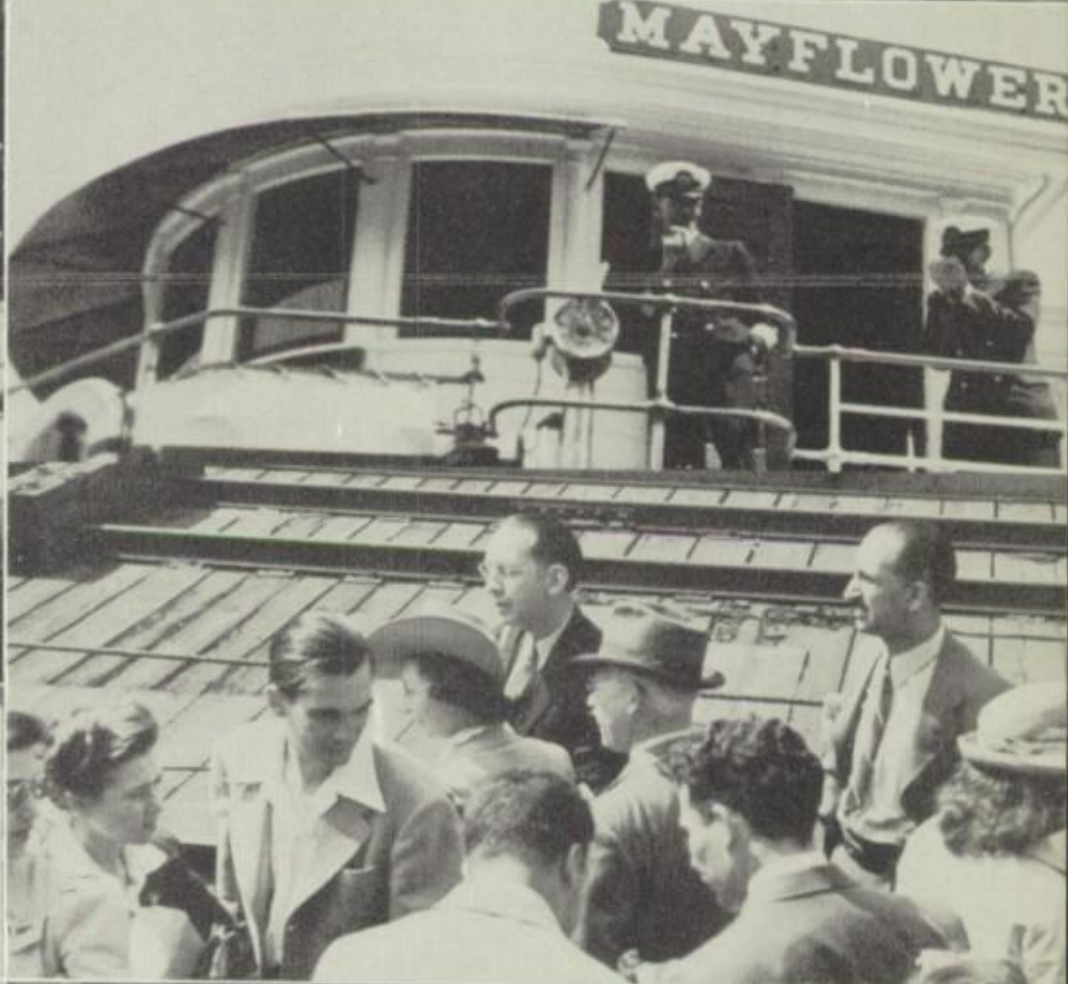

WEST POINT

All aboard! All aboard! Yes, folks, the train is starting. What did you say . . . No, that's not the Chattanooga Choo Choo, that's the Overbrook Special leaving for West Point. . . . Everyone settled? Have your cameras, lunch, and . . . oh, yes—cosmetics. . . . Pardon me, son, you can't go into that air conditioned train, that one is for the teachers only. . . . Well, we might as well see who's here. . . . Suppose we walk through the train. Oh . . . pardon me! Why it doesn't take long for these fellows and girls to find something to occupy themselves with. Haven't we reached Jersey City yet? Did you say that we are pulling into the station now. . . . Let's reach the boat quickly and get a comfortable chair on the top deck. . . . There she is . . . her name is Mayflower. . . . Stop pushing . . . you'll get to the top deck, don't worry. . . . Has anyone seen Mr. Boris? I want to take his picture. . . . The boat is starting . . . just feel this breeze. . . . Now to see what's in this lunch box of mine. . . . Why is everyone rushing to the sides of the boat. . . . Sing Sing! . . . Are these wise cracks corny! This certainly is a perfect day for the trip—so far, I've taken pictures of the N. Y. Billion Dollar skyline, the Statue of Liberty and the George Washington Bridge. . . . I had better save some films for the rest of the trip. . . . Which reminds me—we should be near West Point. We went through the Palisades a little while ago . . . the boat is slowing down. . . . We're here!

What a climb up this hill! Where shall we go first? Flirtation Walk? . . . This sign says that no visitors are allowed. . . . this must be it. . . . Is this path rocky!

Here's the lover's bench . . . how romantic! . . . Come on, let's go to the chapel now. . . . Ho hum . . . every time you take a step in this place you have to climb a hill. . . . At last, we've made it! Listen! Someone is playing at the organ. What celestial tones! I could listen to them all day, but we had better return to the parade grounds. It's time for the Cadet's review. . . . Look at the girls taking pictures with the cadets. Thrill! Thrill! . . . Let's find a bench. . . . I'm tired! They're starting to parade. Oh-h-h-h! What form! What precision! The entire spectacle is so colorful. . . . There's the boat's whistle. Let's go. . . . Everyone here? . . . Do my feet hurt. . . . This boat ride is so restful. . . . I think I'll join the crowd and sing. . . . "Oh, the deacon went down" . . . What a beautiful sunset! It won't be long before we reach Jersey City. . . . In fact, we've passed the George Washington Bridge already. . . . Everyone is gathering their possessions. . . . We must be there.

The train is almost ready to start. . . . Here comes Mr. Boris and Mr. Rosenberg. . . . Yes, everything is O. K. . . . Oh, the lights went out. . . . It's funny (?) the way the bulbs just fall from their places. . . . Wonder why? . . . Ouch! . . . I've got a cinder in my eye. . . . Where's the nurse. . . . This would happen to me. . . . Well, we're nearly home now, anyway. . . . What a day! I'll never forget it. . . . the Cadets' parade, flirtation walk, and especially—those spotless streets and pavements! The train is slowing up—We're in Philadelphia. Home, sweet home, and my soft bed. . . . Thank goodness, tomorrow is Memorial Day. . . . S'long, everybody, see you in school!

SPORTS AT O. H. S.

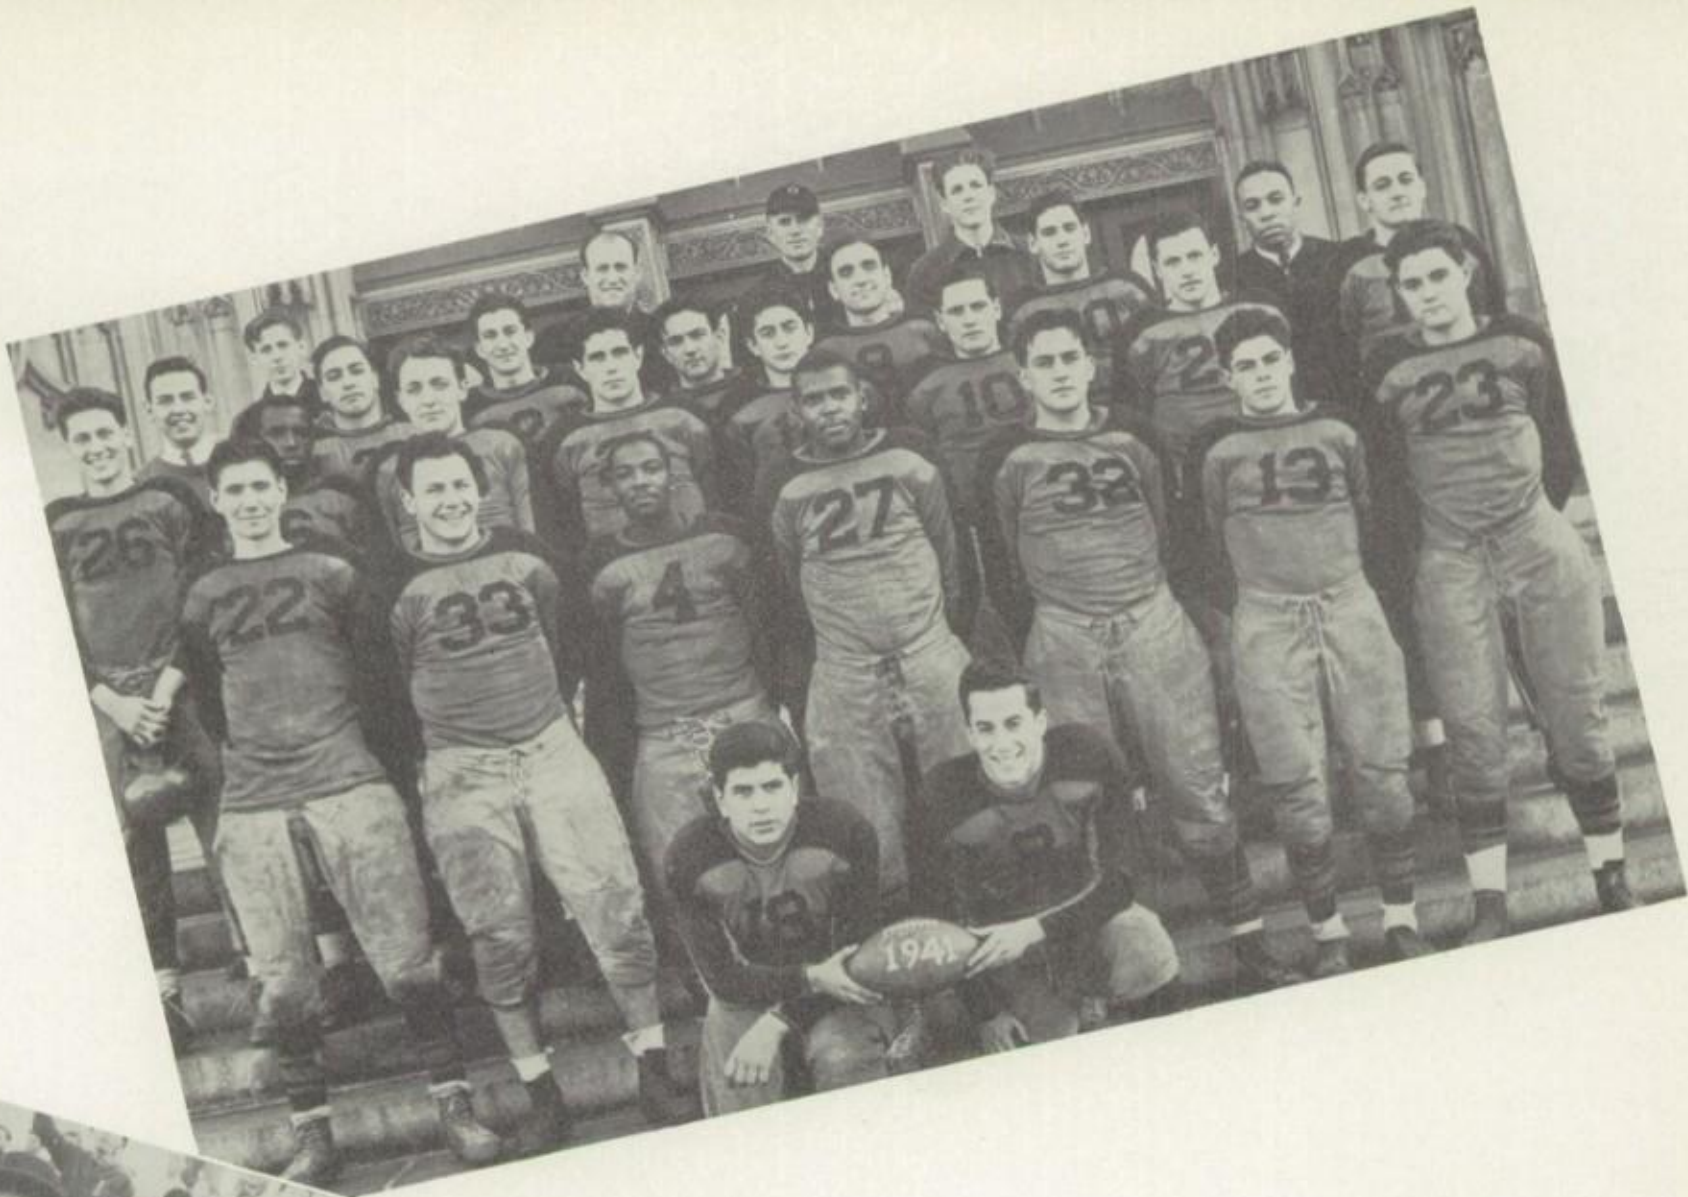

Track championships! Defeat of West Philly on the gridiron.
Just a few of the great victories which the Panthers won over their rivals.

Going way back to our freshman year, we learned that the swimming, gym, tennis, and golf teams had been removed from Overbrook because of financial trouble.

Football a payable sport, remained on one roster to help wipe out deficit caused by other sports.

Before the start of our gridiron season, our minds can wonder back to only one great game on the gridiron, that being the defeat of West Philly at the hands of Overbrook. 'Member that great pass, from Oscar Johnson to Wayne Cocco, in the second period? Yes, that one will be hard to forget.

Using the never-say-die-theory our Panthers took on two pre-city champs and Overbrook's first scholastic league opponents, also proved too much for the Panthers, although the game was much closer and hard-fought than the 18-0 score implies.

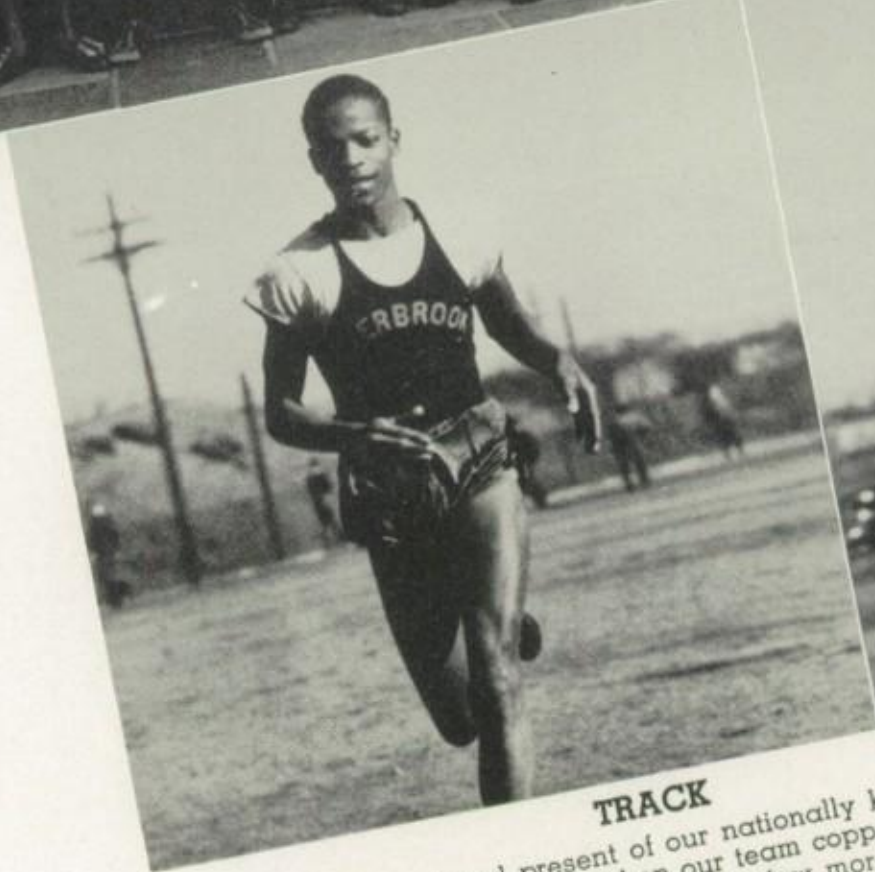

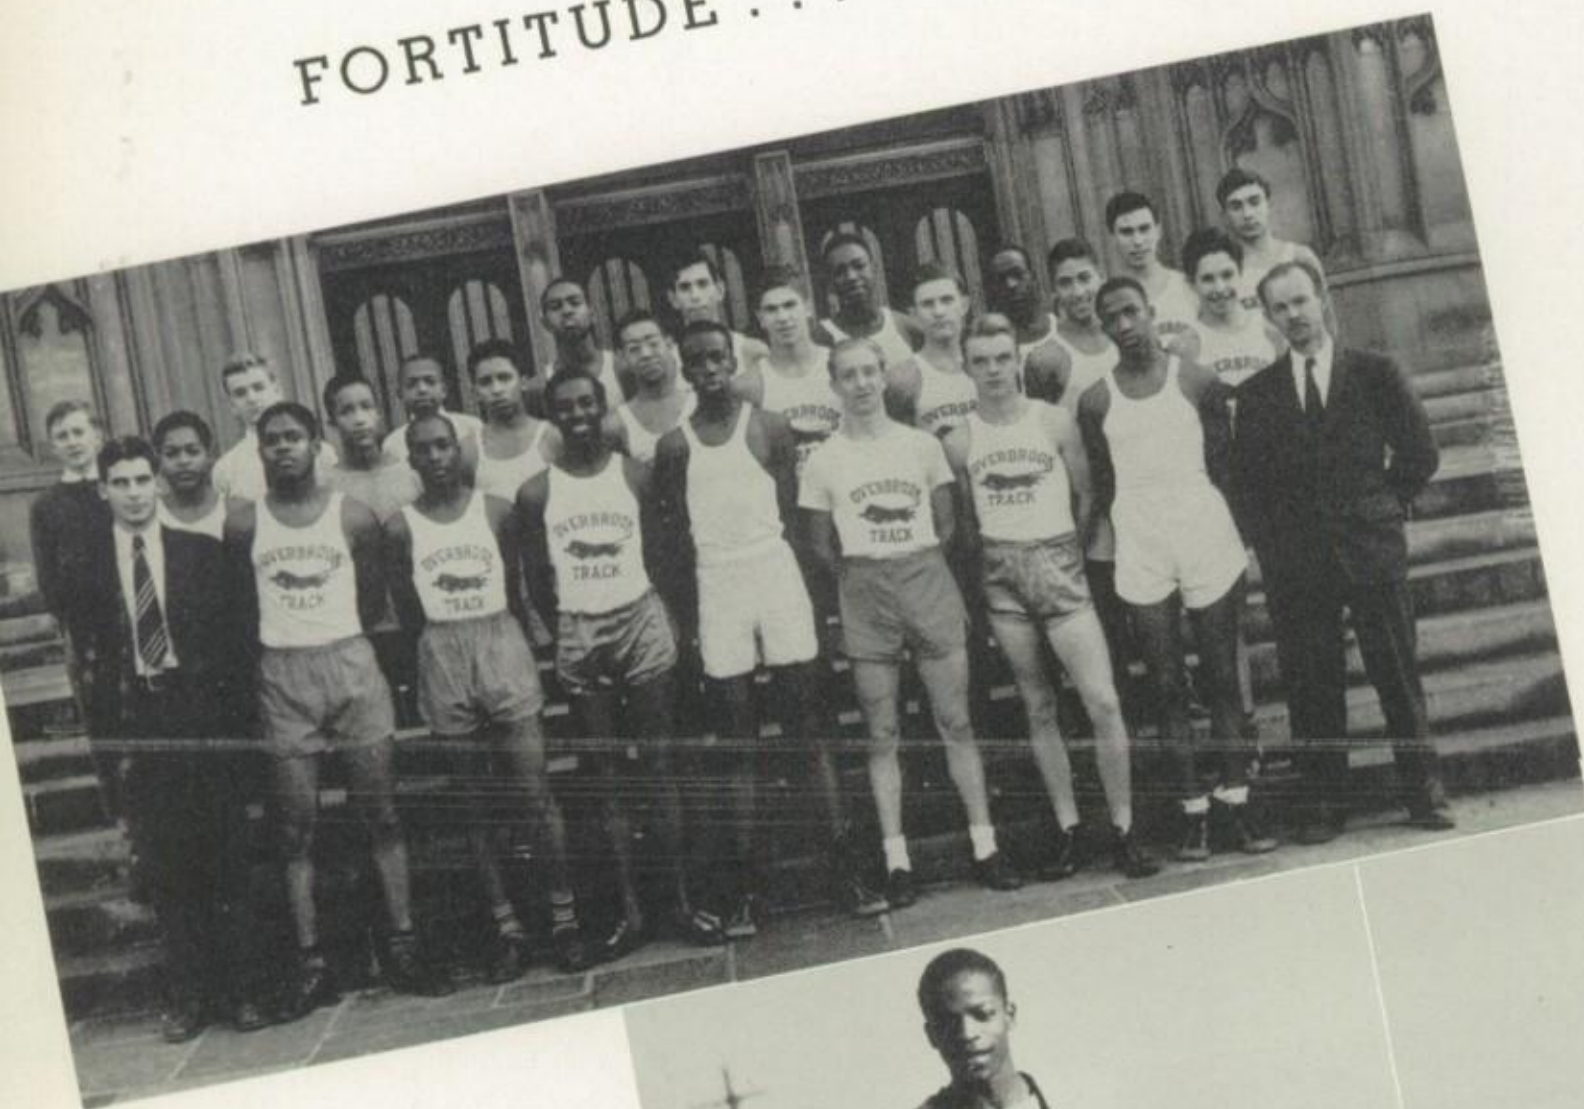

As a result of bad breaks, a rejuvenated Overbrook team was held to a 6-6 tie by Southern High's spunky eleven at the Rams' new stadium. A determined Panther eleven took the field against this highly rated Roxborough team. Playing a bang-up game, the Hilltoppers just narrowly missed upsetting the Indians, 7-6.

Once again in our short history, the Speedboys of West Philadelphia just barely nosed out our fighting Panthers. Due to a quick return of a kick during the last period, our boys were topped, 7 to 0.

A highly favored Panther squad were upset, 12 to 6, at the hands of Simon Gratz. This game concluded our not-too-successful season on the gridiron for the scholastic league.

O. H. S. bit the dust against a neighborhood rival, John Bartram, coming out of the game on the short end of a 13-7 decision. Members who helped to bring about season were Co-captains Marks, Hassis, Glanzberg, Minor, Oldrate, Ianotta, Weiss, Sheikman, Paris, Hoggard, Petruzzo, Brown, Schmukler, and Williams. The last four members are Feb. '42 students.

FORTITUDE

TRACK

And now to view the past and present of our nationally known track team, we'll never forget that afternoon at the Penn Relays, when our team copped the National Medley Relay. Later in that season the Orange and Black added a few more medals to its ever-expanding collection, when the Mile Relay Trophy was captured by the superior Hilltopper four. We also won the Public High Championship for the third straight time. All the track combinations suffered a hard blow when Herb Grigson, our famous coach, resigned. Following Mr. Grigson, the reigns were immediately taken over by Mr. Anthony Amico, a member of the shop department. Mr. Grigson, however, found time enough to coach the cross-country team to many victories.

Our harriers romped over all kinds of competition to take the Scholastic League Mile Championship at the Penn A. C. During the sway of power we saw the Panthers win the national and one local title in just 36 hours on the cinder paths of Franklin Field. They went on to climax this sensational season by romping through all league competition. Last June our forces traveled afar and came home with the mile relay championship from Schenectady, N. Y. Members who have brought many laurels to O. H. S. during the past year have been Grant and Gorman, co-captains; Grimes, Baugh, Gartland, Williams, etc. The latter two are members of the class of Feb. '42.

BASEBALL

Knocking off West Philly for two successive seasons has made us feel sweet revenge deep down in our hearts. Each year the Kistenmachenmen fighting hard under trying conditions, have always managed to view at the end of the season a 500%, or better, average in the "win" and "lose" column.

In '39, we achieved victories against Haverford, Central, Roxborough, and Olney, before going down to defeat at the hands of Frankford and Ben Franklin. In '40, the boys caused a pennant scare with their willows, by running over three highly-favored rivals in successive order. A defeat in football and baseball was suffered by West Philly.

As this was our final year to view the power of the Panthers, we again produced quite a successful nine. Jolting Brown Prep, Camden, Bok, Southern, Central, and trouncing West Philly, 14 to 3. Pennant chances were halted by defeats at the hands of Bartram and Roxborough.

BASKETBALL

Under the able leadership of "W. C. W." Weiler, popular basketball coach of the Panther team, it has continually maintained a high standing among Public High Quintets. In Feb. '39, while still in knee pants, the Hilltoppers had a mighty aggregation on the floor. Members Ross Eck, "Pete" Fulleton, and Don Butler, who captured third place honors that year, a great achievement for any junior.

One year later, the 4200 undergraduates all predicted that the "school on the hill" could not help but place in the covered finds of the Public High League. That year we knocked over the West Philly five, to capture second place.

TEAMWORK . . .

By now, we struggled for two years and we're seniors. By the start of the new year our team really came to, and we were the hottest quintet in the league. Our record showed seven wins against four loses, just missing the Public High Playoff. A late spurt recorded successive wins over Bartram, Frankford, Northeast, Olney and Germantown. Only one of our class, Stan Channick, is now competing on the present varsity which is made up of mostly juniors.

AND RHYTHM

CHEERLEADERS

The smallest of our clubs, but certainly not the least important, is our Cheerleading Club. During the spring term several girls spend much time practicing cheers in preparation for our football games in the fall. Eliminations are made until only the best leaders remain. In the fall these girls go to the games wearing O. H. S. colors and work wholeheartedly to cheer our team to victory. They add not only spirit and excitement to the games but beauty and color as well.

BASKETBALL

The Basketball Club centers about the speediest game played in any of our clubs. The club meets on Wednesdays and all grades are represented by teams chosen by the managers with the aid of Miss Newcomb. These teams compete from week to week. The highlight of the fall term is the annual Alumni-Varsity game which terminates the season. In this game, the best players in the club form a team which plays the Alumni. This grand affair is looked forward to by all members of the club; and every girl works hard to acquire the perfect mental and physical coordination which is essential in this popular game so that she might be able to participate in the final playoff.

DANCING CLUB

The Dancing Club, which is sponsored by Miss Zelley, is one in which our girls have an opportunity to display their grace and poise. The work of this club consists mainly of ballet dances which require much concentration as well as graceful and rhythmic body movements. This term the girls spent a great deal of time practicing their dances in preparation for Parade Night. Their hard work is never in vain for their performances are always heartily acclaimed.

BOWLING CLUB

With bowling fast becoming a national sport, the Bowling Club, the most recently formed of all our clubs, is probably the most popular one. Every Wednesday afternoon, about eighty-two enthusiastic girls make their ways to Jimmy Dykes' Bowling Alleys at 52nd and Sansom Sts. There, under the capable leadership of Miss Newcomb, sponsor, and Elizabeth Terzano, manager, they become acquainted with the essentials of bowling and practice for that technique which marks a professional bowler. Since there are no restrictions as to ability, girls who have had little practice may bowl with others who may be very good. In this way, the less experienced girls may become better acquainted with the game by observing the form of the better bowlers.

SWIMMING CLUB

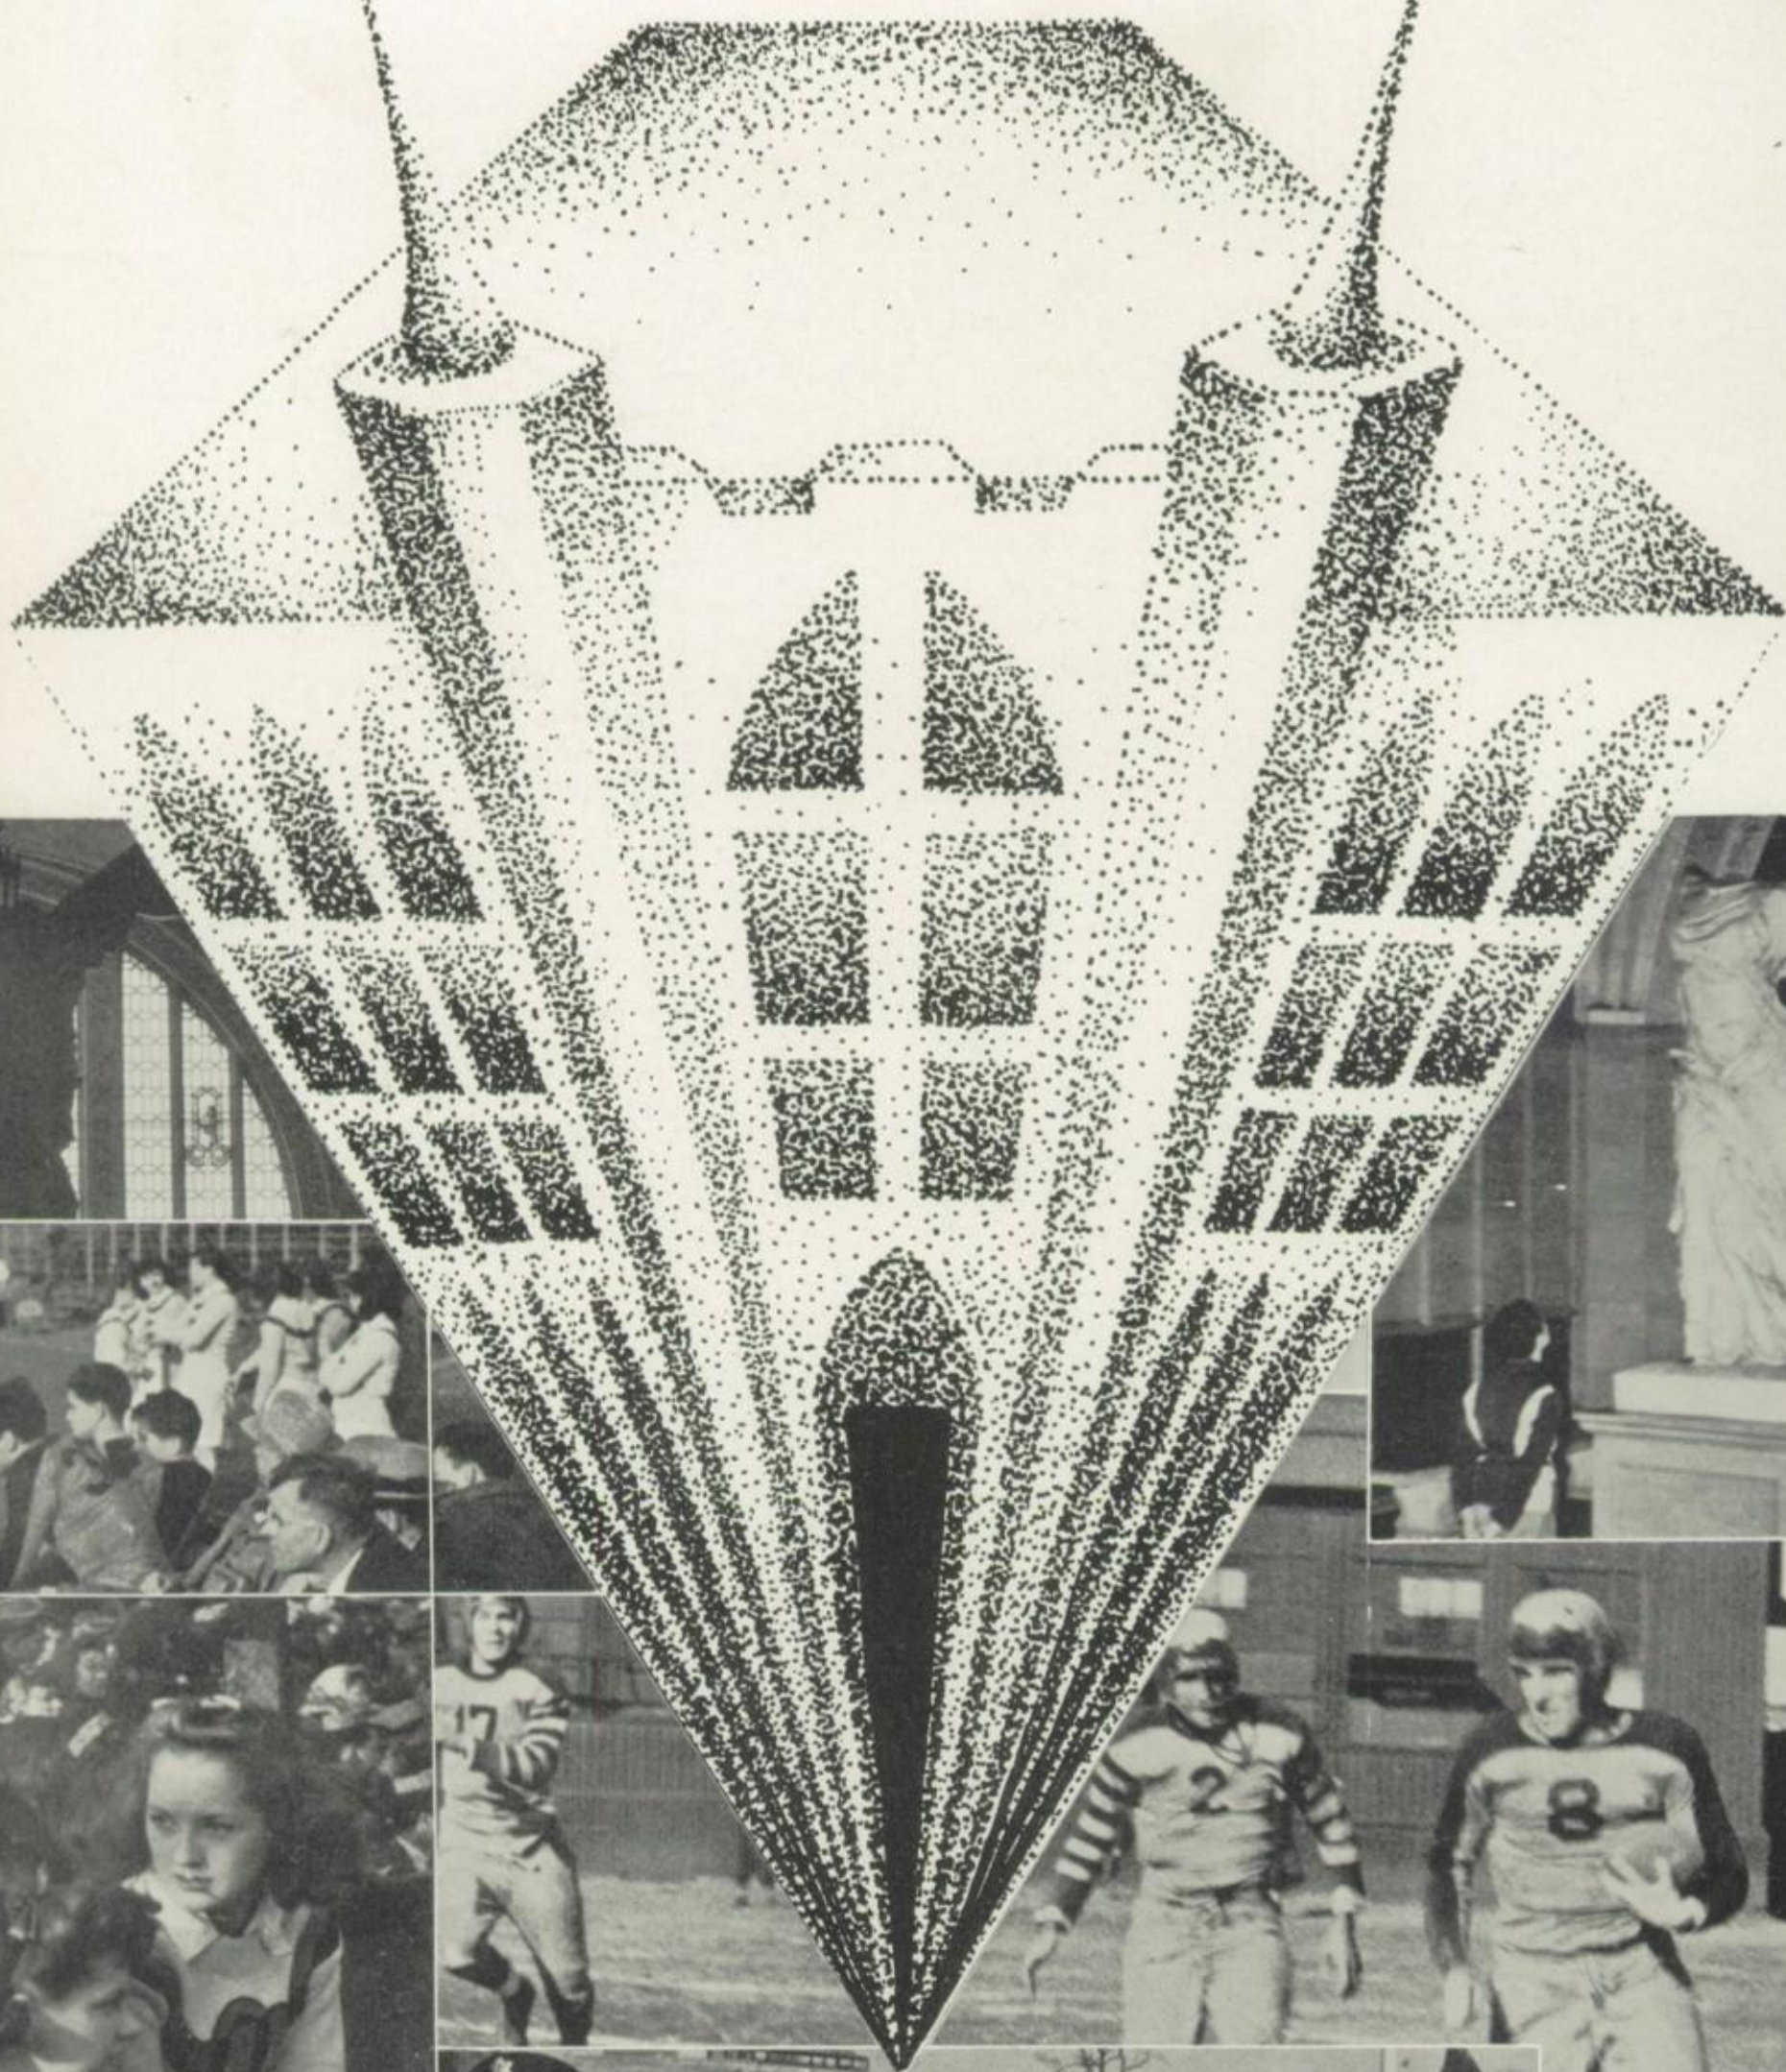

The Swimming Club, having classes ranging from beginners to varsity, offers excellent opportunity for girls of all abilities. Every Tuesday at the Y. M. C. A., under the patient leadership of Miss Smith, the girls learn how to swim, to perfect their strokes, and to do both plain and fancy diving. There is also an opportunity for those interested in Life Saving, both junior and senior, to receive instructions from Miss Moore, swimming instructor at the "Y." Furthermore, the club is divided into two teams which engage in friendly competition. The atmosphere created by this competition inspires the girls to work harder for their teams as well as for their personal benefits.

MONDAY GAMES CLUB

The Monday Games Club, although the name is new, is not an entirely new club, since it is a branch of the old Round Robin Club. This club, composed of interested girls from 11B, 12A, and 12B classes, parallels the popularity of its mother club. With its wide variety of activities, namely, ping-pong, archery, badminton, and deck tennis or ring volley, it appeals to many girls. Under the leadership of its sponsor, Miss Early, a tournament is held in which each girl has a chance to play all other members of the club. This tournament not only heightens the interest of the girls but teaches them the principles of good sportsmanship.

LEADERS' CLUB

The Leaders' Club, which met on Monday afternoons after school, was previously composed of all girls interested in improving their class aims and aiding in their gym classes. Last term, however, a new plan was adopted. Under this plan, the club is composed of girls who are chosen by the gym teachers for their ability. The club now meets during school hours. The purpose of the club is to help those who are interested in developing leaders. This term the chief activity is an exercise in rhythmic which the girls, under the leadership of Miss Early, worked into a patriotic number for Parade Night. The girls are also given definite aims which they work on for extra credit. These exercises increase the interest of the girls in the club and help them to perfect their form on the various pieces of apparatus.

12-B JINGLES

The goal of success is now won
By the spirit of 12B-1.

2
Look out! We're coming through!
Graduating Class of 12B-2.

3 Success to the Seniors will always be
The sincerest wish of 12B-3.

Farewell to you we cheerily say
To all the students who have to stay;
We've graduated, we're here no more,
Give out three cheers for old Book 4.

5
Spirits true, hearts alive,
That is the motto of 12B-5.

6
Like Aesop's proverbial bundle of sticks
We stuck together in 12B-6.

Seven rhymes with heaven,
So, in our book, if you took a look,
You'd find forty angels ravin'.

8
"Good luck to Overbrook," says Bk. 8,
We hate to leave, but that's just fate.

9
In all endeavors you'll find us tryin',
We're the members of 12B nine.
